As we continue our Easter journey I wish to offer my heartfelt thanks to the more than 550 families who contributed to our parish achieving the Annual Diocesan Appeal (ADA) goal this year. It is a sign of your generosity in the sharing of your treasure in support of the mission of our Catholic Church in the Diocese of San Jose. Our call to serve as a Church, the mission Jesus sends us on, is connected to the greater Catholic family throughout the world. Your gifts of time, talent and treasure in stewardship of God's generosity are signs of that great love.

Our call to evangelize the world is an act of generosity. In the coming days many families in our parish will bring forward their children to receive their first Holy Communion. This blessing is a reminder that the greatest gift we share with one another is our faith in Jesus Christ. When we live and practice our faith with intentional works of love and compassion, the Works of Mercy, we bring the Kingdom of God to all our relationships. The work of teaching the faith is the work of each and every baptized Christian. We can only do this as individuals, families and community when we live in a deep and prayerful relationship with Jesus Christ.

Jesus' invitation to you is the blessing of time to pray each day and listen to the Word of God spoken and shared in love.
God Bless, Fr. Mark

Mientras continuamos nuestra jornada Pascual deseo ofrecer mi más sincero agradecimiento a las más de 550 familias que han contribuido a nuestra parroquia para lograr nuestra meta para la Campaña Anual Diocesana (ADA) de este año. Es un signo de su generosidad al compartir de su tesoro en apoyo de la misión de nuestra Iglesia Católica en la Diócesis de San José. Nuestro llamado para servir como una Iglesia la misión que Jesús, está conectada con la gran familia católica en todo el mundo. Sus dones de tiempo, talento y tesoro en la corresponsabilidad de la generosidad de Dios son signos de ese gran amor.

Nuestro llamado para evangelizar el mundo es un acto de generosidad. En los próximos días muchas familias en nuestra parroquia presentarán sus hijos para recibir su primera comunión. Esta bendición es un recordatorio de que el regalo más grande que compartimos con los demás es nuestra fe en Jesucristo. Cuando vivimos y practicamos nuestra fe con obras intencionales de amor y compasión, las obras de misericordia, traemos el Reino de Dios a todas nuestras relaciones. La enseñanza de la fe es el trabajo de todos y cada uno de los bautizados. Sólo podemos hacer esto como individuos, familias y comunidad cuando vivimos en una relación profunda y orante con Jesucristo.

La invitación de Jesús es la bendición del tiempo para orar cada día y escuchar la Palabra de Dios compartida con amor. Que Dios los bendiga, El Padre Mark
