The call of stewardship as a follower of Jesus Christ is deeply ingrained in how we answer our invitation to serve God and the people around us. It is in sharing our gifts, sharing who we are, as children of God that opens our eyes and the eyes of the world to the daily blessings that surround us.

As our summer ends and the transition into fall, with school, parish activities and other changes occur, in our lives, taking time to reassess, to look deeply into our relationship with God and our community is a good place to start. It is often during times of transition when the most fruitful prayer happens.

Matthew Kelly in Rediscover Jesus reminds us of this important truth in our faith. "The long history of God's relationship with humanity has always displayed his preference for collaboration over intervention. God will not snap his fingers and bring about the type of transformation we are talking about here. He desires a dynamic collaboration with each of us. God wants us to do our part." (102)

We often wish for intervention...God change this or that, change him or her...when God invites us to change our lives so that we might be the compassionate and merciful child who works for goodness and chooses the good in life. The transformation of a steward of God's gifts is a person who looks upon life and searches for the blessings and then shares them with others. God Bless, Fr. Mark Amzen

St. Lucy Parish is currently conducting its Annual Survey from August 13-31. This is your opportunity to communicate your thoughts and views as to the direction of our parish. We will use your responses to these questions to continue to lead our community to a transformative relationship with Jesus Christ and the Catholic Church. Participation in our online survey is very important and should only take 1 – 2 minutes of your time. You may access the survey form using the below QR Code or by using our St. Lucy website, (<http://www.stlucy-campbell.org/>). Paper forms are available at the church entrances.

ADORATION:

Every Thursday: 9AM - 6PM, Benediction 5:45

The Harvest Is Abundant But The LABORERS ARE FEW: So ASK THE MASTER OF The Harvest TO SEND OUT LABORERS For The HARVEST. Matthew 9:37

Thursday Adoration Prayer For Vocations: 3:15 - 4:15 PM
Every First Saturday: 6:30 - 7:30 PM.

La llamada de la corresponsabilidad como un discípulo de Jesucristo está profundamente arraigado en nuestra forma de responder a la invitación para servir a Dios y a las personas que nos rodean. Es en compartir nuestros dones, compartiendo lo que somos, como hijos de Dios que nos abre los ojos y los ojos del mundo a las bendiciones diarias que nos rodean.

Con el fin del verano y la transición al otoño, con el inicio de la escuela, el inicio de actividades parroquiales y otros cambios en nuestras vidas, teniendo tiempo para volver a evaluar, para profundizar en nuestra relación con Dios y nuestra comunidad es un buen lugar para comenzar. Es a menudo en momentos de transición cuando ocurre la oración más fructífera.

Matthew Kelly en Vuelve a Descubrir a Jesús nos recuerda de esto en nuestra fe. “La larga historia de la relación de Dios con la humanidad siempre ha mostrado Su preferencia por la colaboración sobre la intervención. Dios no tronará Sus dedos y producirá la clase de transformación de la que estamos hablando aquí. Él desea una colaboración dinámica con cada uno de nosotros. Dios quiere que hagamos nuestra parte.” (101)

A menudo deseamos la intervención ... Dios cambia esto o aquello, cámbialo a él o a ella ... cuando Dios nos invita a cambiar nuestra vida para que podamos ser el niño compasivo y misericordioso que trabaja para el bien y elige el bien en la vida. La transformación del administrador de los dones de Dios es una persona que busca las bendiciones en su vida y las comparte con los demás.

Que Dios los bendiga, El Padre Mark Arzen

Su participación en nuestra encuesta es muy importante. Los formularios en papel están disponibles en las entradas de las iglesias.
