The mission of Saint Lucy Parish is to lead people to a transformative relationship with Jesus Christ and the Catholic Church. We live our faith by welcoming and serving.

La misión de la Parroquia de Santa Lucía es guiar a la comunidad a una relación transformadora con Jesucristo y la Iglesia Católica. Vivimos nuestra fe en el servicio y al dar la bienvenida.

Christmas is so close and our little part of the Catholic Church at St. Lucy Parish is bursting with excitement. I do hope that you are reading this sitting in the pew before Mass or at your table at home after attending Mass on this 4th Sunday of Advent.

One person asked if they really needed to go to Mass when tomorrow, Monday, their family would be attending the Christmas Vigil Mass? You all ready know my answer...YES...but here is an analogy for us to think about. I did a little bit a baking of bread in my life and one of the things I learned very quickly was you can't skip steps. The 4th Sunday of Advent is analogous to the final kneading and rising of the dough. If you leave out this step then, while the bread may be edible it will not be as delicious as it should be because of the last step that was skipped because we didn't want to do it.

This Sunday is the last rising, the final step before the bread is placed in the oven to give birth to a loaf of savory and life-giving bread.

Second, I hope that in preparing for Christmas, much as we have prepared by wrapping our gifts to family and friends we do the same with our gift to Jesus and His Catholic Church. (Continued on page 8...)

Notas del Párroco

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

La Navidad se acerca y nuestra pequeña parte de la Iglesia Católica está llena de emoción. Espero que esté leyendo esto sentado en la banca antes de la Misa o en su mesa en casa después de asistir a la Misa en este cuarto domingo de Adviento.

¿Una persona me preguntó si realmente tenía asistir a una misa cuando mañana, lunes, su familia asistiría a la misa de vigilia de Navidad? Todos ustedes saben mi respuesta ... Sí ... pero aquí hay una analogía sobre la que debemos pensar. Hice un pan y una de las cosas que aprendí muy rápido fue que no puedes saltar pasos. El cuarto domingo de Adviento es análogo al amasado final. Si omite este paso, puede que el pan sea comestible, pero no será tan delicioso debido a que se salto el último paso.

Este domingo es el último paso antes de colocar el pan en el horno para que de luz un pan sabroso que da vida.

Segundo, espero que al prepararnos para la Navidad, tanto como nos hemos preparado envolviendo nuestros regalos para familiares y amigos, hacemos lo mismo con nuestro obsequio a Jesús y su Iglesia Católica. (Continúa en la página 8...)

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

From Christ who was, who is and who is to come, grace light and peace be with you!

The coming of the end of the year coincides with our annual observance of Advent and Christmas. As we look back to a year that in so many ways has been terribly sad and disappointing, still we are full of hope in view of what is yet to come. This hope is founded in Who is to come: our Lord Jesus Christ.

The weeks leading to Christmas encourage us to be one with the prophets who foretold the Lord's coming as they fervently hoped for an end to the bondage and captivity that so often marked the life of the people of Israel. Even now, we live in this same hope as we so often sing "O come, O come, Emmanuel, and ransom captive Israel." We rejoice, for we are confident that, in spite of all things, God is with us.

Advent also serves to help us prepare to celebrate the Lord's Birth, surrounded by the love of Mary and Joseph, the song of angels and shepherds' witness. We look fondly to that first Christmas as the reason for our celebration so many years later.

These weeks before Christmas challenge us to see and welcome the Lord who breaks into each of our lives as surely as He entered the life and history of humanity long ago in Bethlehem.

Where do we recognize the Lord today? Do we allow ourselves to hear His voice speaking to us through the Scriptures? Do we encounter His loving care for us in the sacraments, most especially in the Eucharist? Do we know Him in one another and in the poor and needy who knock on the doors of our lives? Today, in December 2018, parents and young children, not so unlike the Holy Family, are seeking asylum from the violence that threatens them. They come to the borders of this nation in the hope that just as the Holy Family found safety in Egypt, so these families will find the welcome that we might reserve for Jesus, Mary and Joseph.

Looking forward to Christmas and the New Year, we cannot erase the mistakes and tragedies of the past, but we can surely recommit ourselves and our Church to a renewed faithfulness to the Lord Whose Birth we prepare to celebrate with joy and love.

May this ancient prayer be on our lips and in our hearts: "Jesus, living in Mary, come and live in us."

With every best wish and kind regard, We remain,

Sincerely yours, Patrick J. McGrath and Oscar Cantú, Bishops of San Jose

Queridos hermanos y hermanas.

De Cristo que fue, quién es y quién ha de venir, ¡gracia luz y paz estén con ustedes!

La llegada del fin de año coincide con nuestra observancia anual de Adviento y Navidad. Al recordar un año que, en muchos sentidos, ha sido terriblemente triste y decepcionante. Sin embargo, todavía estamos llenos de esperanza en vista de lo que está por venir. Esta esperanza se basa en quién vendrá: nuestro Señor Jesucristo.

Las semanas previas a la Navidad nos animan a ser uno con los profetas que predijeron la venida del Señor mientras esperaban fervientemente el fin de la esclavitud y el cautiverio que tan a menudo marcaban la vida del pueblo de Israel. Incluso ahora, vivimos en esta misma esperanza, ya que tan a menudo cantamos. "Ven, ven, Emmanuel, y rescata a Israel de su cautiverio". Nos regocijamos porque confiamos en que, a pesar de todo, Dios está con nosotros.

El Adviento también sirve para ayudarnos a prepararnos para celebrar el nacimiento del Señor, rodeado del amor de María y José, el canto de los ángeles y el testimonio de los pastores. Miramos con cariño a esa primera Navidad como la razón de nuestra celebración muchos años después.

Estas semanas antes de Navidad nos desafían a ver y dar la bienvenida al Señor que irrumpe en cada una de nuestras vidas con la misma certeza con que entró en la vida y la historia de la humanidad hace mucho tiempo en Belén.

¿Dónde reconocemos al Señor hoy? ¿Nos permitimos escuchar su voz hablándonos a través de las Escrituras? ¿Nos encontramos con su amoroso cuidado por nosotros en los sacramentos, especialmente en la Eucaristía? ¿Lo conocemos el uno en el otro y en los pobres y necesitados que llaman a las puertas de nuestras vidas? Hoy, en diciembre de 2018, los padres y los niños pequeños, no muy diferentes de la Sagrada Familia, buscan asilo debido a la violencia que los amenaza. Llegan a las fronteras de esta nación con la esperanza de que al igual que la Sagrada Familia se encuentren seguros como en Egipto, el deseo es que estas familias encuentren la bienvenida que podríamos reservar para Jesús, María y José.

En espera de la Navidad y el Año Nuevo, no podemos borrar los errores y las tragedias del pasado, pero seguramente podemos volver a comprometernos a nosotros mismos y a nuestra Iglesia con una renovada fidelidad al Señor cuyo nacimiento nos preparamos para celebrar con alegría y amor.

Que esta antigua oración esté en nuestros labios y en nuestros corazones: "Jesús, viviendo en María, ven y vive en nosotros".

Con nuestros mejores deseos y bendiciones.

Sinceramente, Patrick J. McGrath y Oscar Cantú, Bishops of San Jose

Children's Faith Formation / Formación de Fe para Niños

...she gave birth to her firstborn son. She wrapped him in swaddling clothes and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn. Now there were shepherds in that region living in the fields and keeping the night watch over their flock. The angel of the Lord appeared to them and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were struck with great fear. The angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for behold, I proclaim to you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. For today in the city of David a savior has been born for you who is Christ and Lord.

... tuvo a su hijo primogénito; lo envolvió en pañales y lo recostó en un pesebre, porque no hubo lugar para ellos en la posada. En aquella región había unos pastores que pasaban la noche en el campo, vigilando por turno sus rebaños. Un ángel del Señor se les apareció y la gloria de Dios los envolvió con su luz y se llenaron de temor. El ángel les dijo: "No teman. Les traigo una buena noticia, que causará gran alegría a todo el pueblo: hoy les ha nacido, en la ciudad de David, un Salvador, que es el Mesías, el Señor.

Merry Christmas!

Coming prepared to give and share what we have at Christmas is important. In our Christmas letter you received a Christmas offertory envelope. I would invite you to use this envelope so we may thank you for the gifts you share with St. Lucy and the infant Jesus. Your support is very important to us to continue our mission of following Jesus Christ and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom.

Lastly, I thank all of you for the wonderful blessings shared this year but please offer your last blessing to our Lord...the blessing of invitation and hospitality. Please reach out and invite family and friends to join us in celebration and show the gracious hospitality of our community to the many visitors coming to give thanks and praise to God. Three quick things:

1. Don't forget to smile and wish everyone a Merry Christmas. The church will be crowded, noisy and full of stress for many people, especially those who do not come often. A smile and warm welcome is a hello from Jesus.
2. Carpool if possible. The parking lot is jammed but with help and sharing rides we are able to fit everyone. Maybe talk to a neighbor or someone who lives close by to come together and sing Christmas carols on the way to and from Mass.
3. Christmas doesn't end on the 25th...it is just beginning for the Catholic Church. Come to Mass during the Octave of Christmas (the 8 days after Christmas) are continue to share and celebrate the wonder of the Incarnation of Jesus the Christ.

On behalf of Fr. Steve, Fr. Joseph and the entire Parish and School Staff, I wish you all a blessed and holy Christmas.

God Bless, Fr. Mark

(Notas del Párroco, de la pagina 1)

Venir preparado para dar y compartir lo que tenemos en Navidad es importante. En nuestra carta navideña recibió un sobre de ofrenda navideña. Lo invito a usar este sobre para que podamos agradecerle por lo que comparte con Santa Lucía y el niño Jesús. Su apoyo es muy importante para que podamos continuar nuestra misión de seguir a Jesucristo y proclamar las buenas nuevas del reino.

Por último, les agradezco a todos por las maravillosas bendiciones compartidas este año, pero ofrezcan la última bendición a nuestro Señor ... la bendición de hospitalidad. Por favor, comuníquese e invite a familiares y amigos para que celebren con nosotros y muestre la amable hospitalidad de nuestra comunidad a los visitantes que vienen para dar gracias y alabar a Dios. Tres cosas:

1. No se olvide sonreír y desearles a todos una Feliz Navidad. La iglesia estará llena de gente, ruidosa y llena de estrés, especialmente para aquellos que no vienen a menudo. Una sonrisa y una cálida bienvenida es un saludo de Jesús.
2. Comparta su coche. El estacionamiento está atascado, pero con su ayuda y compartiendo su carro podemos acomodar a todos. Hable con un vecino o alguien que viva cerca para juntarse para ir a la misa.
3. La Navidad no termina el día 25 ... apenas comienza para la Iglesia Católica. Vengan a misa durante la Octava de Navidad (los 8 días después de Navidad) para continuar compartiendo y celebrando la maravilla de la Encarnación de Jesucristo.

En nombre del Padre Steve, el Padre Joseph y todo el personal de la parroquia y la escuela, les deseo a todos una feliz y santa Navidad.

Que Dios los Bendiga, El Padre Mark
