Our first Sunday of Lent is always a wake-up call to the call to conversion through repentance of our sins. The pillars of fasting, almsgiving and prayer are given to us to jolt us out of our normal patterns as we walk with our Lord Jesus.

In Rediscovering Jesus, Matthew Kelly challenges us to get to know the person of Jesus and to begin to build a stronger relationship with him as a friend. On the second day (chapter 2) of the meditation he asks us to take a brief inventory of everything we know about Jesus. It is amazing how small the list can be if we think about it.

It is when we take time and inventory our relationship with Jesus (God) that we then hear the question from day four with a heart ready to respond. We are able, with honesty and courage, to focus on the true questions of life and share in the divine mercy lived in the heart of Jesus.

During Lent we continue to focus carefully on the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy as we enter into the sacrificial calling of discipleship in and through Jesus Christ. It is important that all of our works, almsgiving and fasting, find their foundation in our prayerful conversation with Jesus. Who is Jesus in our lives is the most important question we will ever ask. God Bless, Fr. Mark

Thank you to everyone who has already answered the request to participate in the 2016 Annual Diocesan Appeal! By supporting our 2016 Diocesan Appeal - Rejoicing in God's Mercy, Together in Christ, we can support the Diocese in multiple ministries which individual parishes could not accomplish alone. If you have any questions about ADA, please call our parish office or visit our diocesan website at www.dsj.org. You can place your contribution in the offertory basket or mail it to the parish office. If we exceed our goal of $190,852, 100% of the funds over the goal come back to our parish!. God bless, Fr. Mark, Fr. Steve, and Raymond Langford

Notas del Párroco

C. J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

El primer domingo de Cuaresma es siempre una llamada a la conversión a través del arrepentimiento de nuestros pecados. Los pilares del ayuno, la caridad y la oración nos empujan fuera de nuestra forma de vida normal mientras acompañamos a nuestro Señor Jesús.

En el libro Vuelve a Descubrir a Jesús, Matthew Kelly nos desafía a conocer a la persona de Jesús para comenzar a construir una relación más fuerte con él como amigo. En el segundo día (capítulo 2) de la meditación nos pide que tomemos un breve inventario de todo lo que sabemos acerca de Jesús. Es sorprendente lo pequeño que es esta lista.

Es cuando tomamos el tiempo y el inventario de nuestra relación con Jesús (Dios) que escuchamos la pregunta del cuatro día con un corazón dispuesto a responder. Somos capaces, con honestidad y valor, darle atención a las verdaderas preguntas de la vida y compartir en la divina misericordia vivido en el corazón de Jesús.

Durante la Cuaresma seguimos enfocados cuidadosamente en las obras espirituales y corporales de la misericordia mientras entramos en la vocación de sacrificio del discipulado a través de Jesucristo. Es importante que todos nuestro trabajo, actos de caridad y ayuno, tengan su base en nuestra conversación en oración con Jesús. ¿Quién es Jesús en nuestras vidas? es la pregunta más importante que podemos preguntar. Que Dios los bendiga, el Padre Mark

Gracias a todos los que ya han respondido a la solicitud de participación en la Campaña Anual Diocesano de 2016! Mediante el apoyo a nuestro llamado Diocesano, Regocijo en la Misericordia del Señor, Juntos con Cristo, podemos apoyar la Diócesis en varios ministerios que las parroquias no podrían lograr por sí solos. Si usted tiene alguna pregunta acerca de la ADA, por favor llame a nuestra oficina parroquial o visite la página web al www.dsj.org. Usted puede hacer su aporte en la canasta del ofertorio o por correo a la oficina parroquial. Si superamos nuestra meta de $190,852, el 100% de los fondos arriba de la meta regresan a nuestra parroquia!

Que Dios los bendiga, el Padre Mark, el Padre Steve, y Raymond Langford
