A Statement from Bishop Patrick J. McGrath

The news of Pope Benedict XVI's intent to resign the papacy at the end of this month came as a shock to all of us. Although the Holy Father had indicated in the past that he would consider resignation if his health warranted it, today's announcement was nonetheless unexpected. By this courageous decision, the Holy Father acted as he always has: displaying his great love for the Church and his trust in the work of the Holy Spirit.

Since his election to the See of Peter in April, 2005, Pope Benedict has been a tireless proponent of the New Evangelization, which his predecessor, Blessed Pope John Paul II, had introduced to the Church and the world. Well into his 80s, the Holy Father continued to cross the globe, proclaiming God's love for all.

Long before he was elected Pope, Joseph Ratzinger was known as one of the greatest theologians of the twentieth century. He continued this particular ministry in his encyclicals, his homilies, his weekly catechesis and in the books that he authored during his papacy.

Ever the teacher, Pope Benedict strived to unify the Church in orthodoxy and fidelity to the Church's ancient Tradition, even as those teachings had been recast in the work of the Second Vatican Council, at which he was a theological expert.

As successor to Saint Peter, the Pope showed pastoral care and solidarity with the Church spread throughout the world by his many apostolic journeys outside of Italy, including his 2008 pilgrimage to the United States.

In visiting the Holy Father last April, it was obvious to us that his energies were greatly diminished and that the years were taking their toll upon him. At the same time, he remained dedicated to carrying out the duties and responsibilities of his office.

Our prayers are with the Holy Father as he now prepares to resign. Our prayers are with the cardinal electors who will choose the next Pope. We entrust the Church to Mary, Mother of God, that the Holy Spirit will continue to guide us along the path toward the Kingdom of God.

I ask the people of the Diocese of San Jose to join with me and Bishop Daly and all of the clergy and religious who serve here to pray for the Church now and during this season of Lent, that a worthy successor to the See of Peter may be chosen.

I invite you to a diocesan celebration of Mass in Thanksgiving for the Ministry of Pope Benedict XVI on Thursday, February 28, beginning at 7:00 p.m., at the Cathedral Basilica of Saint Joseph. I look forward to seeing many of you on the 28th, and I pray that the Lord will bless us all in the holy season of Lent.

Sincerely Yours, Patrick J. McGrath, Bishop of San Jose

Sisters and Brothers of St. Lucy: the sound system that was just installed in our church was the subject of the feature article in Sound and Video Contractor Magazine, and can be found online at http://svconline.com/how/features/automated_expertise/. The reason our sound system was chosen as the feature article is due to the use of new technology to solve the problem of producing consistent, reliable and clear voice and music reproduction in a church environment. As noted in the article, churches are not usually designed with sound reproduction in mind and generally have architectural features that make good sound difficult. Also, many churches do not have sound engineers on site for every liturgy to tune the system for every celebration. The challenge therefore was to find technology that produced good, clear audio reproduction without the need for a sound engineer. The system we now have designed the expertise of a sound engineer into the system using programmable audio technology.

Ministry Spotlight: Ushers and Greeters

The St. Lucy Community is built on strong volunteer support. In fact, it takes scores of volunteers each week to facilitate all the programs the Parish offers. If you have ever thought to yourself that you would like to support your St. Lucy Community with your time and talent, the Ushers and Greeters Ministry could use your help. The people in this ministry serve the Parish by welcoming you as enter the church and passing the collection baskets, among other things. We understand people are very busy, but this particular ministry doesn't require much more of your time than regularly attending Mass. If you would like to "shadow" someone in this ministry to see if it would be a good fit for you, please contact Mrs. Joyce Billings at jabillings33@yahoo.com. Take that first step...you will find your service very rewarding! Many thanks for your prayerful consideration.

Life Teen: This Sunday we will be doing a service project to help families in impoverished parishes around San Jose. This is the "Rice and Beans Project". We will bag rice and beans in baggies and put one of each in lunch bags, decorate them and write notes to families. Then they will go directly to the poor at impoverished parishes. Please bring white rice and dried pinto beans with you to Life Teen. We will be meeting in the Annex. Thank you!

We are high on our Society, Altar Society, that is!!!!

If you are free on Thursday, March 7th please plan on attending our ½ Day of Recollection from 8 am until 1 pm. St Lucy Altar Society started over 75 years ago as a social group and has grown to offer opportunities in both church service and personal spiritual growth. Both men and women are invited to join us. Please call Mary Ann Carnevale for the details at 408-506-1945 on or before Monday, March 4th.

Declaración del Obispo Patrick J. McGrath sobre la dimisión del Papa Benedicto XVI

La noticia del Papa Benedicto XVI sobre la decisión de dimitir el papado a fines de este mes fue un impacto para todos nosotros. De cualquier manera el Santo Padre había indicado en el pasado de que el podría considerar su dimisión si su salud lo justificaría, por lo tanto, hoy, el anuncio no fue del todo inesperado. Por su valiente decisión, el Santo Padre ha actuado como el siempre lo ha hecho, mostrando su gran amor por la Iglesia y confiando en el trabajo del Espíritu Santo.

Desde su elección para la Sede de San Pedro en abril del 2005, el Papa Benedicto ha estado infatigablemente defendiendo la Nueva Evangelización, la cual su predecesor el Beato Papa Juan Pablo II, había presentado a la Iglesia y al mundo. Por lo tanto, en sus años 80 el Santo Padre ininterrumpidamente ha visitado naciones proclamando el amor de Dios para todos.

Mucho antes de ser elegido Papa, Joseph Ratzinger era conocido como uno de los mejores teólogos del siglo XX. El continuó este ministerio particular en sus encíclicas, sus homilías, sus catequesis semanales y en sus libros que él escribió durante su papado. Siempre el maestro, el Papa Benedicto luchando por unir la Iglesia en ortodoxia y en fidelidad a la Antigua Tradición de la Iglesia, aun aquellas enseñanzas que le han cambia-do el trabajo al Concilio Vaticano II, en el cual fue un experto teólogo.

Como sucesor de San Pedro, el Papa mostro un cuidado pastoral y solidaridad con la Iglesia extendida por el mundo por sus muchos viajes apostólicos fuera de Italia, incluyendo su viaje peregrino en los Estados Unidos en el año 2008.

Visitando al Santo Padre el pasado mes de abril, fue muy obvio para nosotros el que sus energías estaban disminuidas grandemente y los años habían tomado su papel en su persona. Al mismo tiempo, el continuaba dedicando el cuidado a sus deberes y responsabilidades en su oficina.

Nuestras oraciones están con el Santo Padre, ahora que él se prepara para su dimisión. Nuestras oraciones también con los cardenales electos para escoger al nuevo Papa. Nosotros confiamos la Iglesia a María, Madre de Dios para que el Espíritu Santo continúe guiándonos a lo largo del camino hacia el Reino de Dios.

Yo pido a las personas de la Diócesis de San José que se unan a mí y al Obispo Thomas Daly y a todo el clero y religiosos que sirven aquí para orar por la Iglesia ahora y durante esta temporada de Cuaresma, para que un digno sucesor a la Sede de San Pedro sea escogido.

Los invito a una celebración diocesana, una Misa en Acción de Gracias para el Papa Benedicto XVI el jueves, 28 de febrero a partir de las 7:00 pm en la Catedral Basílica de St. Joseph. Espero ver a muchos de ustedes y ruego que el Señor nos bendiga a todos en este santo tiempo de la Cuaresma.

Atentamente, Patrick J. McGrath, obispo de San José

CONFIANZA

La frase "Confiamos en Dios" está grabada en los billetes de este país. También debería estar grabada en lo más íntimo de nuestro ser. Sin embargo, la verdad es que dudamos de confiar en los demás, inclusive en Dios. Preferimos poner nuestra confianza en reserva, temerosos de que nos lastimen o nos traicionen. Las lecturas de hoy nos recuerdan que la Cuaresma es un tiempo para la confianza –la confianza que transforma.

Dios hace una sorprendente promesa a Abraham. Para recibirla, lo único que Abraham necesita es confiar. Pablo le dice a los filipenses que ellos, también, deberán confiar que son los beneficiarios de la generosa gracia de Dios; que no son ciudadanos de un reino terrenal, sino del cielo. Estas dos lecturas nos invitan a escuchar el relato de un Evangelio de gran confianza –confianza que Dios cumplirá sus promesas y que el paso de Jesús nos llevará a la transformación y a la nueva vida.

Vía Crucis

El grupo de Jóvenes adultos Despertar Juvenil te invita a participar en el Vía Crucis. Los ensayos son todos los domingos a las 7PM en la iglesia. Ven y únete a nosotros para representar este importante evento de la Vida, Pasión y Muerte de nuestro Señor Jesucristo.

Life Teen: Este domingo estaremos trabajando en un proyecto de servicio para ayudar a familias en las parroquias alrededor de San José. Este es el proyecto "Rice and Beans". Vamos a llenar bolsas con arroz y frijoles y arreglar cajas de comida, decorarlas y escribir cartas a las familias. Estas irán directamente a los pobres de las parroquias pobres. Favor de traer arroz blanco y frijoles pintos con ustedes para Life Teen. Nos reuniremos en el anexo. ¡Gracias!

Lent is all about change and change is usually not easy. In order to change we have to leave something behind. What is it that the Lord is asking us to leave behind? Are we willing to take the risk for the promise made by God? These questions are at the heart of the Lenten journey.

Lenten Practices

Fast Days

Ash Wednesday & Good Friday

One full meal, two light meals; no eating between meals. Ages 18-60.

Days of Abstinence

Ash Wednesday & all Fridays

No meat for those over age 14.

Cuaresma es cambio y cambiar no es fácil. Para poder cambiar debemos dejar algo atrás. ¿Qué nos pide Dios dejar atrás? ¿Estamos dispuestos a arriesgarlo todo por la promesa que Dios hace? Estas son las preguntas centrales en el camino de conversión de la Cuaresma. © Copyright, J. S. Paluch

ADVERTISING

He who has a thing to sell and goes and whispers in a well, is not so apt to get the dollars as he who climbs a tree and hollers.

WHY IS IT
A man wakes up after sleeping under an ADVERTISED blanket on an ADVERTISED mattress and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas bathes in an ADVERTISED shower shaves with an ADVERTISED razor brushes his teeth with ADVERTISED toothpaste washes with ADVERTISED soap puts on ADVERTISED clothes drinks a cup of ADVERTISED coffee drives to work in an ADVERTISED car and then . . . refuses to ADVERTISE believing it doesn't pay. Later if business is poor he ADVERTISES it for sale.
WHY IS IT?
