Generosity and forgiveness...forgiveness and generosity are inseparable when we walk the path of discipleship. We are generous with our time, talent and treasure because it is a reflection of God's generosity in the gift of love. We are also generously forgiving because in relationships of love we discover the depths of God's forgiveness as we share our life and love with those around us.

Matthew Kelly in Rediscover Jesus puts it this way; "It is impossible to separate the spiritual teachings of Jesus Christ from his social teachings, just as it is impossible to separate the love of God from our love of neighbor. The dual command to love God and love neighbor are inseparable...Our love of neighbor is the proof that we love God." (p 67)

The practice of our faith must always be both of heart and hands. We are called to listen to the living Word of God, Jesus, with attentiveness permitting him to convert our hearts. It is then that we are invited to move in generous love in the active life of a disciple. The listening in prayer allows us to see how our active participation in the world is the work of God and the hope of the Kingdom of God. In this time when so much violence and strife injures our world, our prayerful and active participation in life is a witness to God's generosity and forgiveness.

God Bless, Fr. Mark

July Tips of the Month - Living a merciful life.

Dear brothers and sisters, In this Jubilee Year of Mercy, to continue expanding on the ideas of living our lives according to the 14 Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy - we would like to offer you a few practical tips on how to live the 5th Spiritual Work of Mercy: Forgive offenses or injuries. This is probably one of the most difficult Catholic teachings to live by: to forgive those who had caused us pain, or injuries. But this could also be thought as one of the best Catholic teachings because forgiving others will cleanse our heart and break us free from the shackles of hatred. To practice this spiritual work of mercy, we urge you to practice some of the following:

1. Say the "Our Father" prayer and ask God to give you the grace of forgiveness.
2. Find ways to bring yourself closer to God - so you could hear him better. This could be done by prayers, by conversations with God or by receiving His Body and Blood.
3. Try to remind yourself this person is your brother or sister in Christ - as we all are children of God.
4. Try to look into the offender's goodness; and recognize that he is human and, thus, has flaws.
5. When you attend Mass, offer the Mass to the person who had offended you. He needs your mercy as much as your prayers.

"...and forgive our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us..." From Our Father Prayer

La generosidad y el perdón ... el perdón y la generosidad son inseparables cuando caminamos la jornada del discipulado. Somos generosos con nuestro tiempo, talento y tesoro, ya que es un reflejo de la generosidad de Dios en el don del amor. También somos generosos al perdonar porque en relaciones de amor descubrimos las profundidades del perdón de Dios al compartir nuestra vida y el amor con los que nos rodean.

Matthew Kelly en Vuelve a Descubrir a Jesús lo escribe de esta manera; "Es imposible separar las enseñanzas espirituales de Jesucristo de sus enseñanzas sociales, así como es imposible separar nuestro amor a Dios de nuestro amor al prójimo. El doble Mandamiento amar a Dios y amar al prójimo es inseparable...Nuestro amor al prójimo es la prueba de que amamos a Dios." (p 63)

La práctica de nuestra fe siempre debe de ser de corazón y de manos. Estamos llamados a escuchar la Palabra viva de Dios, Jesús, con la atención que nos permita convertir nuestros corazones. Es entonces que se nos invita a movernos en el amor generoso en la vida activa de un discípulo. Al escuchar en la oración nos permite ver cómo nuestra participación activa en el mundo es la obra de Dios y la esperanza del Reino de Dios. Ahora que hay tanta violencia y conflictos que dañan nuestro mundo, nuestra participación orante y activa en la vida es un testimonio de la generosidad y el perdón de Dios. Que Dios los bendiga, el Padre Mark

Consejos para el mes de julio - Vivir una vida misericordiosa.

Queridos hermanos y hermanas, en este Año Jubilar de la Merced, para continuar la expansión en las ideas de como nuestras vidas de acuerdo con las 14 Obras corporal y espirituales - nos gustaría ofrecerle algunos consejos prácticos sobre cómo vivir la 5ª Obra Espiritual: perdonar las ofensas o lesiones. Esta es probablemente una de las enseñanzas católicas más difíciles: perdonar a los que nos han causado dolor. Pero esto también podría ser considerado como una de las mejores enseñanzas de la Iglesia, porque perdonar a los demás limpia nuestro corazón y nos libera de las cadenas del odio. Los invitamos a practicar algunas de las siguientes:

1. Diga un "Padre Nuestro" y pídale a Dios que le dé la gracia del perdón.
2. Encontrar maneras para acercarnos más cerca a Dios - para oírlo claramente. Esto podría hacerse por medio de las oraciones, con conversaciones con Dios, o recibiendo el Cuerpo y la Sangre.
3. Trate de recordar que esta persona es su hermano o hermana en Cristo - como lo somos todos los hijos de Dios.
4. Trate de ver la bondad del infractor; y reconozca que él es humano y, por lo tanto, tiene defectos.
5. Cuando vaya a Misa, ofrezca una Misa por la persona que lo haya ofendido. Él necesita su misericordia tanto como sus oraciones.

"...Perdona nuestras ofensas, como nosotros también perdonamos a los que nos ofenden ..." del Padre Nuestro
