This week we will be celebrating the 4th of July, our Independence Day in the United States. Many of us will be gathering to share food, play games and come together as family and neighbors to recognize the blessings we share in our nation. We will hear the fireworks and the voices of joy traveling throughout our towns and cities as we remember the gift of freedom.

It is this gift of freedom, we as Christians, recognize as the first and most important blessing from God. As we re-read Rediscover Jesus we hear these powerful words in Chapter 7, "God values freedom...Without freedom there is no love, because we can only ever love to the extent that we are free." (p. 45) The desire and longing for freedom is at the heart of every person because we are made in the image of God. Fulfilling this act of freedom is choosing to love even in the midst of conflict.

Placing Jesus at the center of our lives helps us to see and know the blessings of our brothers and sisters in recognizing their gifts and how they enrich our lives.

As you share meals and time with others this 4th of July celebrate God's gift of freedom with joy and invite a friend to come to Mass with you in the coming week. God Bless, Fr. Mark

We invite the parish to help with this program by donating needed backpacks and school supplies. Basic school supplies and backpacks (no Blue or Red) will be collected at all Masses through the end of July. All donations and supplies must be deposited at the church by July 25. Esta semana vamos a celebrar el 4 de julio, el Día de la Independencia en los Estados Unidos. Muchos nos reuniremos para compartir comida, jugar juegos y unirnos como familia y vecinos para reconocer las bendiciones que compartimos en nuestro país. Vamos a escuchar los fuegos artificiales y las voces de alegría que viajan a lo largo de nuestros pueblos y ciudades recordando el don de la libertad.

El don de la libertad, nosotros, como cristianos, se reconoce como la primera y la más importante bendición de Dios. Cuando volvemos a leer el libro Vuelve a Descubrir a Jesús, escuchamos las palabras potentes en el capítulo 7, "Dios valora tanto la libertad... Sin libertad no hay amor, porque solamente podemos amar tanto como seamos libres." (p39) El deseo y el anhelo por la libertad está en el corazón de cada persona porque estamos creados en la imagen de Dios. El cumplimiento de este acto de libertad es la elección de amar aunque haya conflicto.

La colocación de Jesús en el centro de nuestras vidas nos ayuda a ver y conocer las bendiciones de nuestros hermanos y hermanas en el reconocimiento de sus dones y cómo enriquecen nuestras vidas.

Al compartir comidas y tiempo con los demás el 4 de julio celebre el don de la libertad que nos ha dado Dios con alegría e invite a un amigo que vaya a Misa con usted esta próxima semana.

Que Dios los bendiga, El Padre Mark
