We often describe our faith life as a journey, a pilgrimage and movement from one place to another in prayer. The photo you are looking at is of one of our St. Lucy parishioner's Oscar Lombardi recently journeyed to Spain to walk the Camino de Santiago (the Road of St. James). It is a journey and pilgrimage portrayed in the movie "The Way" starring Martin Sheen and directed by his son Emilio Estevez.

The movie depicts the Camino as a journey of prayer, of transformation and of love. Oscar, as he walked the road, prayed for our parish as part of his journey. In the call to prayer, Jesus reminds us, our prayers are effective and help to renew the world.

We can sometimes wonder if our prayers are effective or have meaningful purpose, I assure you that they do. But more importantly in our Christian faith, the journey is discovery of our connection to God in the Most Holy Trinity. We discover the person of Jesus in a relationship of prayerful love where as Matthew Kelly asks us to consider, "Do you have a really good reason not to take Jesus at his word?"

We may not be able to make a pilgrimage like Oscar's but we can all walk with Jesus each day on our pilgrimage of life. God bless, Fr. Mark

A menudo trazamos nuestra vida de fe como un viaje, una peregrinación y el movimiento de un lugar a otro con la oración. La foto que están viendo es de uno de nuestros feligreses de Santa Lucía, Oscar Lombardi, que recientemente viajó a España para recorrer el Camino de Santiago. Es un viaje de peregrinación retratado en la película "The Way", protagonizada por Martin Sheen y dirigida por su hijo Emilio Estévez.

La película muestra el Camino como una jornada de oración, de transformación y de amor. Oscar, mientras caminaba el camino, oraba por nuestra parroquia como parte de su jornada. En la llamada a la oración, Jesús nos recuerda que nuestras oraciones son eficaces y ayudan a renovar el mundo.

A veces preguntamos si nuestras oraciones son eficaces o tienen un propósito significativo, les aseguro que lo son. Pero más importante para nuestra fe cristiana, la jornada es el descubrimiento de nuestra conexión con Dios en la Santísima Trinidad. Descubrimos que la persona de Jesús en una relación de oración de amor, donde, como Matthew Kelly nos invita a considerar, "¿Tienes una muy buena razón para no aceptar la palabra de Jesús?"

Puede que no seamos capaces de hacer una peregrinación como Oscar, pero todos podemos caminar con Jesús cada día en nuestra peregrinación de la vida. Que Dios los bendiga, El Padre Mark
