The mission of Saint Lucy Parish is to lead people to a transformative relationship with Jesus Christ and the Catholic Church. We live our faith by welcoming and serving.

La misión de la Parroquia de Santa Lucía es guiar a la comunidad a una relación transformadora con Jesucristo y la Iglesia Católica. Vivimos nuestra fe en el servicio y al dar la bienvenida.

We all know the three pillars of Lent: fasting, prayer and almsgiving.

Today I would like to talk about almsgiving and the blessings of sharing who we are through the gifts of our time, talent and treasure because in the end, stewardship is the foundation of our giving of ourselves to God. In a very specific way, the almsgiving I wish to talk about is giving to charity, or to a charity of our choice.

For example, I support a specific charity with small donations every year. In return, above and beyond the blessings of God, is they send me one of the these small religious items, sacramentals, such as rosaries, saint medals, holy cards and other things. Most of the time these items remain unused because, for example, I don't have a need for a new rosary. Your parish council at St. Lucy proposed a solution. We are going to collect these items and share them with those who need them. Beginning next week, March 24, we will have a special box at the front entrance of the church to collect these small religious items. Our parish Girl Scouts will then separate them to be given to our different parish ministries to share as we go about our work. (Continued on page 5...)

Notas del Párroco

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Todos sabemos los tres pilares de la Cuaresma: el ayuno, la oración y la caridad.

Hoy me gustaría hablar sobre la caridad y las bendiciones de compartir lo que somos a través de los obsequios de nuestro tiempo, talento y tesoro, porque al final, la corresponsabilidad es la base de nuestra entrega a Dios. De una manera muy específica, deseo hablar sobre dar un obsequio a una caridad de nuestra elección.

Por ejemplo, yo apoyo una organización específica con pequeñas donaciones cada año. A cambio, además de las bendiciones de Dios, me envían pequeños artículos religiosos sacramentales, como rosarios, medallas de santos, tarjetas y otras cosas. La mayoría de las veces, estos artículos no se utilizan porque, por ejemplo, no necesito un nuevo rosario. Su consejo parroquial de Santa Lucía propuso una solución. Vamos a coleccionar estos artículos y compartirlos con aquellos que los necesitan. A partir de la próxima semana, el 24 de marzo, tendremos una caja especial en la entrada principal de la iglesia para recoger estos pequeños artículos religiosos. Las Girl Scouts de nuestra parroquia los separarán para entregarlos a nuestros diferentes ministerios parroquiales. (Continúa en la página 5...)

We hope this way of giving alms helps us to see how when we are blessed with abundance we are invited to share this abundance, religious articles, with our community.

On day Nine in Matthew Kelly's book Rediscover Jesus he reminds us Jesus was "The Greatest Teacher Ever". This is a great reminder of how we look to Jesus and hear his words not just as throw away phrases but more importantly as the Word of Life living within us. It is understanding that when we study the Word of God we do not just listen but we enter into the knowledge and love of our Lord Jesus through actions of mercy and service.

"Jesus wants to teach you how to live an incredible life." (p 52) What are we willing to leave behind, to share, to bless so as to live this incredible life? During Lent this question should be part of the work we do in our fasting, prayer and almsgiving. If we are simply "going through" Lent without desiring deep transformation... then we should go back to chapter 1 and begin again with a fresh start. It is never too late to begin to follow Jesus. We just need to take the first step. "Jesus, teach me how to be a great student." (p 52)

God bless, Fr. Mark

(Notas del Párroco, de la pagina 1)

Esperamos que esta forma de caridad nos ayude a ver cómo, cuando estamos bendecidos con abundancia, somos invitados a compartir esta abundancia, artículos religiosos, con nuestra comunidad.

En el día nueve en el libro de Matthew Kelly Vuelve a Descubrir a Jesús, el nos recuerda que Jesús fue "El Maestro Más Grande que Ha Existido". Este es un gran recordatorio de cómo observamos a Jesús y escuchamos sus palabras, no solo como frases desechadas, sino más importante, como la Palabra de Vida que vive dentro de nosotros. Cuando entendemos la Palabra de Dios, entendemos que no solo escuchamos, sino que entramos en el conocimiento y amamos a nuestro Señor Jesús mediante acciones de misericordia y servicio.

"Jesús quiere enseñarte cómo vivir una vida increíble" (p. 48). ¿Qué estamos dispuestos a dejar, a compartir, a bendecir para vivir esta vida increíble? Durante la Cuaresma, esta pregunta debe ser parte del trabajo que hacemos en nuestro ayuno, oración y caridad. Si simplemente estamos "pasando" la Cuaresma sin desear una transformación profunda ... entonces deberíamos volver al capítulo 1 y comenzar de nuevo con un comienzo renovado. Nunca es muy tarde para comenzar a seguir a Jesús. Solo tenemos que dar el primer paso. "Jesús, enseñame cómo ser un gran estudiante". (p. 48)

Que Dios los bendiga, El Padre Mark

Encounter Annet

Annet's youngest sister calls her Mom—and for good reason. Since their parents' deaths 4 years ago, 16-year-old Annet has been caring for her three siblings: Gladys, 6, Irene, 8 and Emmanuel, 10.

It hasn't been easy. Ongoing violence in their home country, South Sudan, forced Annet to take her siblings and flee south to neighboring Uganda. It was a dangerous journey, but Annet kept them safe despite threats from rebel soldiers.

For more than 2 years now, Annet and her siblings have been living in Bidi Bidi, one of the world's largest refugee settlements. Formed in 2015, Bidi Bidi is home to nearly 300,000 people—many South Sudanese who, like Annet, fled for their lives to Uganda.

While Annet is happy to be away from the violence, life in Bidi Bidi is hard—especially for a young woman trying to raise her siblings. That's why CRS is building houses for families like Annet's. A place to call home means Annet can rest a little easier at night knowing her family is safe.

But that's not all. CRS is also helping people like Annet learn to farm and is giving them the tools they need to succeed. Annet was given her own plot of land to plant on so she will be able to continue providing for her siblings.

For her, that's the most important thing. While she wants her family to return to South Sudan one day, for now she knows that Bidi

Un encuentro con Annet

La hermana menor de Annet llama a su mamá, y por una buena razón. Desde la muerte de sus padres hace 4 años, Annet, de 16 años, ha estado cuidando a sus tres hermanos: Gladys, 6, Irene, 8 y Emmanuel, 10.

No ha sido fácil. La violencia en curso en su país de origen, Sudán del Sur, obligó a Annet a llevar a sus hermanos y huir al sur a la vecina Uganda. Fue un viaje peligroso, pero Annet los mantuvo a salvo a pesar de las amenazas de los soldados rebeldes. Por más de 2 años, Annet y sus hermanos han estado viviendo en Bidi Bidi, uno de los asentamientos de refugiados más grandes del mundo. Formada en 2015, Bidi Bidi es el hogar de casi 300,000 personas, muchos sudaneses del sur que, como Annet, huyeron por sus vidas a Uganda.

Si bien Annet está feliz de estar lejos de la violencia, la vida en Bidi Bidi es difícil, especialmente para una mujer joven que intenta criar a sus hermanos. Es por eso que CRS está construyendo casas para familias como las de Annet. Un lugar al que llamar hogar es que Annet puede descansar un poco más tranquila por la noche sabiendo que su familia está a salvo.

Pero eso no es todo. CRS también está ayudando a las personas como Annet a aprender a cultivar y les está dando las herramientas que necesitan para tener éxito. Annet recibió su propio terreno para plantar, por lo que podrá seguir cuidando a sus hermanos.

Para ella, eso es lo más importante. Si bien quiere que su familia regrese a Sudán del Sur un día, por ahora sabe que Bidi Bidi es la opción más segura. Mientras tanto, anima a sus hermanos a ir a la escuela y hace todo lo posible para garantizar que tengan un futuro brillante.

"Mi esperanza es criar a mis hermanos", dice ella. "Y sé que puedo hacerlo con la ayuda de CRS y mi fe católica".

From the Principal's Office

Dear Parishioners,

Lent is a time of personal change, self-examination and reflection. It is a time for prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Every week during Lent, our teachers will spend time reflecting on Jesus' life with their classes. Students will "walk with Jesus" throughout his final journey. How will your family prepare for Lent? In what areas in your life is God inviting you to experience a new beginning?

At St. Lucy School, eighth grade is a very important year. Most students have been together for 9 years. Strong friendships have been cultivated. There are also special events that occur during this year. Students bond together each Wednesday as they each create a quilt. This Friendship quilt is on display during their Baccalaureate luncheon. A special trip to the State Capitol as well as leading the Parish through Stations of the Cross are key events in 8th grade.

Sue Grover,
Principal

On of the most exciting yet stressful times in 8th grade surround applying to high schools. Whether students apply to public schools or Catholic schools, keeping grades up is very important. Students begin shadowing at all high schools in October, complete applications by December/January and take the High School Placement Test mid January. All their work came to fruition on Friday when students received acceptance news from the Catholic high schools. Congratulations to the St. Lucy School Class of 2019!

Blessings,
Sue Grover
Principal
