NOTE

As we celebrate the 3rd Sunday of Lent I would like to talk about prayer and how the other two disciplines of Lent, almsgiving and fasting, (from the last two bulletins) build upon one another and each of these disciplines need to be united for us to truly discover our full and complete relationship with God who is Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

Prayer, simply put, is a conversation with God. The Catechism of the Catholic Church defines it as great mystery and offers us this quote, "For me, prayer is a surge of the heart; it is a simple look turned toward heaven, it is a cry of recognition and of love, embracing both trial and joy." (CCC #2558 from St. Therèse of Lisieux) But at the same time it is very hard to describe because it is a great mystery. In this great mystery, the Church reminds us that prayer is: God's gift, it is covenantal, and call us to communion.

If it is a gift from God then we believe, "Prayer is the raising of one's mind and heart to God or the requesting of good things from God."... Only when we humbly acknowledge that "we do not know how to pray as we ought," are we ready to receive freely the gift of prayer. "Man is a beggar before God." (CCC #2559) (Continued on page 5...)

Celebrando el 3er domingo de Cuaresma, me gustaría hablar sobre como la oración y las otras dos disciplinas de Cuaresma, la caridad y el ayuno (de los últimos boletines) se apoyan mutuamente y como cada una de estas disciplinas deben unirse para descubrir verdaderamente nuestra relación plena y completa con Dios que es Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo.

La oración, en pocas palabras, es una conversación con Dios. El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica lo define como un gran misterio y nos ofrece esta cita: "Para mí, la oración es un impulso del corazón, una sencilla mirada lanzada hacia el cielo, un grito de reconocimiento y de amor tanto desde dentro de la prueba como en la alegría (Santa Teresa del Niño Jesús," (CCC #2558) Pero al mismo tiempo es muy difícil de describir porque es un gran misterio. En este gran misterio, la Iglesia nos recuerda que la oración es: el don de Dios, es un pacto, y nos llama a la comunión.

Si es un don de Dios, entonces creemos: "La oración es la elevación del alma a Dios o la petición a Dios de bienes convenientes"... La humildad es la base de la oración. "Nosotros no sabemos pedir como conviene". La humildad es una disposición necesaria para recibir gratuitamente el don de la oración: el hombre es un mendigo de Dios." (CCC #2559) (Continúa en la página 5...)

In other words, in prayer we continue to discover how we find God in our lives. It is never a done deal because we grow in faith and knowledge of our relationship with God.

Why is prayer a covenant? "Christian prayer is a covenant relationship between God and man in Christ. It is the action of God and of man, springing forth from both the Holy Spirit and ourselves, wholly directed to the Father, in union with the human will of the Son of God made man." (CCC #2564) It is a promise to enter into a relationship of love where God offers himself to us and seeks us in our sin.

Lastly it is a communion, "In the New Covenant, prayer is the living relationship of the children of God with their Father who is good beyond measure, with his Son Jesus Christ and with the Holy Spirit...Prayer is Christian insofar as it is communion with Christ and extends throughout the Church, which is his Body. Its dimensions are those of Christ's love." (#2565) I would encourage you to subscribe to formed.org and learn more about prayer. We offer this for free by using the code in the bulletin or on our parish website. Or go to our Parish YouTube page to watch our videos on the "Five Forms of Prayer"

God bless, Fr. Mark

(Notas del Párroco, de la pagina 1)

En otras palabras, en la oración, continuamos descubriendo cómo encontramos a Dios en nuestras vidas. Este trato no termina porque crecemos en la fe y en el conocimiento de nuestra relación con Dios.

¿Por qué es la oración un pacto? "La oración cristiana es una relación de Alianza entre Dios y el hombre en Cristo. Es acción de Dios y del hombre; brota del Espíritu Santo y de nosotros, dirigida por completo al Padre, en unión con la voluntad humana del Hijo de Dios hecho hombre." (CCC #2564) Es una promesa para entrar en una relación de amor donde Dios se ofrece a nosotros y nos busca en nuestro pecado.

Por último, es una comunión: "En la nueva Alianza, la oración es la relación viva de los hijos de Dios con su Padre infinitamente bueno, con su Hijo Jesucristo y con el Espíritu Santo...La oración es cristiana en tanto en cuanto es comunión con Cristo y se extiende por la Iglesia que es su Cuerpo. Sus dimensiones son las del Amor de Cristo." (CCC #2565) Lo animo a que se suscriba a formed.org y aprenda más sobre la oración. Ofrecemos esta suscripción sin costo usando el código que se encuentra en el boletín o en el sitio web de nuestra parroquia. O visite nuestra página de YouTube para ver nuestros videos sobre las "Cinco formas de la oración"

CRS RICE BOWL

Encounter Kumba

Waisa didn't spend a single day in school. When she was young, no one thought girls should receive an education. Plus, there was work to do. She helped her twelve siblings at her family's farm. She was responsible for helping her mom sell meat to their neighbors.

Now, things have changed in Sinkunia, a town in the north of Sierra Leone. Waisa knows the importance of education—especially for girls. "If there's education, Sierra Leone will develop," she says. "Our students will make sure of it."

That's why Waisa insists that her 12-year-old granddaughter, Kumba, attends the nearby CRS-sponsored school, so she can learn how to make a difference in her community and her country. And, through the nutritious lunch that CRS gives to each student every day, Kumba and her classmates can focus on their studies and not on their hunger.

Kumba's favorite subject is math because she likes the challenge. And when she completes her education, she wants to be a nurse. A nurse, Kumba says, helps cure the sick, and if there were more nurses in Sinkunia, those who get sick wouldn't have to leave the town to get healthcare.

Waisa is proud of her granddaughter and continues to work hard to support her. With no shade from the hot sun, Waisa cares for the family's garden, watering eggplants, tomatoes, onions and more to be harvested and sold through the streets of Sinkunia. Kumba helps, too, visiting the garden every day after school.

"I'm happy if I can support my daughters and granddaughters, even through university," Waisa says. With a smile, she adds, "I know that educated girls help their parents and their communities."

Un encuentro con Kumba

Waisa no pasó un solo día en la escuela. Cuando era joven, nadie pensaba que las niñas debían recibir una educación. Además, había trabajo que hacer. Ella ayudó a sus doce hermanos en la granja de su familia. Ella era responsable de ayudar a su madre a vender carne a sus vecinos. Ahora, las cosas han cambiado en Sinkunia, una ciudad en el norte de Sierra Leona. Waisa conoce la importancia de la educación, especialmente para las niñas. "Si hay educación, Sierra Leona se desarrollará", dice ella. "Nuestros estudiantes se asegurarán de ello".

Por eso Waisa insiste en que su nieta de 12 años, Kumba, asiste a la escuela cercana patrocinada por CRS, para que pueda aprender cómo hacer una diferencia en su comunidad y en su país. Y, a través del almuerzo nutritivo que CRS le da a cada estudiante todos los días, Kumba y sus compañeros de clase pueden concentrarse en sus estudios y no en su hambre.

La materia favorita de Kumba es matemáticas porque a ella le gusta el desafío. Y cuando termina su educación, quiere ser enfermera. Una enfermera, dice Kumba, ayuda a curar a los enfermos, y si hubiera más enfermeras en Sinkunia, las personas que se enferman no tendrían que abandonar la ciudad para recibir atención médica.

Waisa está orgullosa de su nieta y continúa trabajando arduamente para apoyarla. Sin sombra del calor del sol, Waisa cuida el jardín de la familia, riega las berenjenas, los tomates, las cebollas y más para que sean cosechados y vendidos en las calles de Sinkunia. Kumba también ayuda a visitar el jardín todos los días después de la escuela.

"Estoy feliz de poder apoyar a mis hijas y nietas, incluso a través de la universidad", dice Waisa. Con una sonrisa, agrega, "Sé que las niñas educadas ayudan a sus padres y a sus comunidades".

From the Principal's Office

Dear Parishioners,

We focus on the third week of Lent. During Lent, we are challenged to embrace the season's three "pillars" — prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Each pillar supports a strong Lent, worthy of our call to renewal, repentance and growth. How are you sharing one or all of the pillars this Lenten season?

The Parish Finance Council oversees both the parish and the school's finances. Each year, the School Advisory Board works with its finance committee to create a budget that aligns with the mission of the school and its strategic plan. Last week, the budget then was presented to the Parish Finance Council for their review where a final recommendation is made. This week, the School Advisory Board reviewed the budget and tuition rates in order to make a recommendation to Fr. Mark and myself. Based on their input, Fr. Mark and I make a final decision and the school families will be notified. It is a long, yet rewarding process.

Sue Grover,
Principal

St. Lucy School has rolling admissions. Interested in attending? Schedule a tour with our Admissions Director and/ or bring your child in for a shadow visit. We would love to spend time talking about our school program.

*Blessing during this Lenten Season,
Sue Grover
Principal*
