MERCY

God is mercy. That seems to be the main message of the reading from Exodus. God has seen the suffering of the Israelites and promises mercy and rescue. From then on, God is to be known as the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

Paul calls his readers to continue to grow in the faith. The God who rescued Israel also rescues them. As beneficiaries of God's mercy, Christians must keep on working, doing their part to become ever more trusting and loving people of God.

The Gospel's second section is a homey story about God's mercy. Against the advice of the land owner, the vinedresser pleads for mercy—and shows mercy—to allow the poor fig tree yet another year to become productive.

Special Guest Speaker next Sunday for "Year of Faith" Series on the Second Vatican Council March 10, 4:00 - 5:30 PM in Parish Activity Center

Fr Frederick Cwiekowski is a Sulpician priest who has taught dogmatic theology at St. Patrick's Seminary for the past twenty-two years. He did his doctorate at the Catholic University of Louvain during the Council and studied under professors of the University who helped write some of the Vatican II documents.

The session will focus on Vatican II's Dogmatic Constitution on the Church (Lumen Gentium). While the text stands in continuity with the Church's past traditions, it also presents significant developments in terms of our present understanding of Church, developments which challenge us still. Among others, we shall look at the understanding of the Church as the People of God, the dignity and role of all the baptized faithful, the universal call to holiness, hierarchy as service in the Church, and Mary as model and icon of the Church.

MISERICORDIA

Dios es misericordia. Eso parece ser el mensaje principal de la lectura del Éxodo. Dios ha visto el sufrimiento de los israelitas y les promete misericordia y rescate. Desde ese momento, Dios es conocido como el Dios de Abraham, Isaac y Jacob.

Pablo llama a sus lectores para que continúen creciendo en la fe. El Dios que rescató a Israel también los rescató a ellos. Por ser beneficiarios de la misericordia de Dios, los cristianos deberán continuar trabajando para poner de su parte y convertirse en un pueblo de Dios cada vez más confiado y lleno de amor.

La segunda parte del Evangelio es una historia hogareña sobre la misericordia de Dios. Desobedeciendo el consejo del dueño de la viña, el viñador pide misericordia —y la muestra— para permitir que la pobre higuera reciba un año más de gracia para producir fruto.

Vivamos la Palabra de Dios

El Evangelio de hoy nos despliega la parábola de la higuera, a menudo descrita como la parábola de la segunda oportunidad. El dueño del viñedo quiere cortarla. El viñador, pide otra oportunidad en favor de la higuera. Las segundas oportunidades a menudo vienen acompañadas de grandes y maravillosos resultados.

There will be NO FLOWERS OR PLANTS IN THE CHURCH DURING LENT.
No habrá FLORES O PLANTAS EN LA IGLESIA DURANTE LA CUARESMA.

Lent is all about change and change is usually not easy. In order to change we have to leave something behind. What is it that the Lord is asking us to leave behind? Are we willing to take the risk for the promise made by God? These questions are at the heart of the Lenten journey.

Lenten Practices

Fast Days

Ash Wednesday & Good Friday

One full meal, two light meals; no eating between meals. Ages 18-60.

Days of Abstinence

Ash Wednesday & all Fridays

No meat for those over age 14.

Cuaresma es cambio y cambiar no es fácil. Para poder cambiar debemos dejar algo atrás. ¿Qué nos pide Dios dejar atrás? ¿Estamos dispuestos a arriesgarlo todo por la promesa que Dios hace? Estas son las preguntas centrales en el camino de conversión de la Cuaresma. © Copyright, J. S. Paluch
