Jesucristo y la Iglesia Católica.

Vivimos nuestra fe en el servicio y al dar la bienvenida.

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY!!

This weekend, the 4th Sunday of Easter has been traditionally known as "Good Shepherd Sunday" because of the readings the Church gives to us this day. It is even more impactful for us as a parish and diocese this year because God has given us a new shepherd to lead the Diocese of San Jose into the future. At the beginning of this month we welcomed Bishop Oscar Cantú as the third Bishop of San Jose as Bishop Patrick retired after more than 20 years of service to our diocese. Bishop Oscar now leads us into the future as the shepherd as the apostles in the image of Jesus Christ.

The Second Vatican Council in the Decree "CHRISTUS DOMINUS" reminds us, that "Bishops should dedicate themselves to their apostolic office as witness of Christ before all men. They should not only look after those who already follow the Prince of Pastors but should also wholeheartedly devote themselves to those who have strayed in any way from the path of truth or are ignorant of the Gospel of Christ and His saving mercy until finally all men walk "in all goodness and justice and truth" (Eph. 5:9)." ¡¡FELIZ DÍA DE LAS MADRES!!

Este fin de semana, el cuarto domingo de Pascua, se ha conocido tradicionalmente como el "domingo del Buen Pastor" debido a las lecturas que la Iglesia nos da. Es aún más impactante para nosotros como parroquia y diócesis este año porque Dios nos ha dado un nuevo pastor para guiar a la Diócesis de San José hacia el futuro. A principios de este mes, le dimos la bienvenida al Obispo Oscar Cantú como el tercer obispo de San José, ya que el Obispo Patrick se retiró después de más de 20 años de servicio a nuestra diócesis. El Obispo Oscar ahora nos conduce al futuro como el pastor como apóstoles a la imagen de Jesucristo.

El Concilio Vaticano II en el decreto "CHRISTUS DOMINUS" nos recuerda que "Los Obispos deben dedicarse a su labor apostólica como testigos de Cristo delante de los hombres, interesándose no sólo por los que ya siguen al Príncipe de los Pastores, sino consagrándose totalmente a los que de alguna manera perdieron el camino de la verdad o desconocen el Evangelio y la misericordia salvadora de Cristo, para que todos caminen "en toda bondad, justicia y verdad" (Ef., 5,9). (Pastor's Notes Continued from page 1)

Furthermore, "In discharging their apostolic office, which concerns the salvation of souls, bishops per se enjoy full and perfect freedom and independence from any civil authority. Hence, the exercise of their ecclesiastical office may not be hindered, directly or indirectly, nor may they be forbidden to communicate freely with the Apostolic See, or ecclesiastical authorities, or their subjects. Assuredly, while sacred pastors devote themselves to the spiritual care of their flock, they also in fact have regard for their social and civil progress and prosperity. According to the nature of their office and as behooves bishops, they collaborate actively with public authorities for this purpose and advocate obedience to just laws and reverence for legitimately constituted authorities." (#19)

Let us continue to pray for Bishop Oscar for the guidance and blessing to continue to grow in faith, hope and love as he guides the Diocese of San Jose.

We also pray for our priests during Good Shepherd Sunday in their call to lead the local parishes in following in the footsteps of Jesus Christ. This week we have a special collection for the retired priests of the Diocese of San Jose. The monies for this collection go directly into the retirement fund for priests. Your generosity is a gift of appreciation to priests, like Fr. Terry Sullivan and Fr. Kevin Joyce, our two retired pastors of St. Lucy as well as all the priests of the diocese.

God bless, Fr. Mark

(Notas del Párroco, de la pagina 1)

Además, "En el ejercicio de su ministerio, ordenado a la salvación de las almas, los Obispos de por sí gozan de plena y perfecta libertad e independencia de cualquier autoridad civil. Por lo cual no es lícito impedir, directa o indirectamente, el ejercicio de su cargo eclesiástico, ni prohibirles que se comuniquen libremente con la Sede Apostólica, con otras autoridades eclesiásticas y con sus súbditos. En realidad, los sagrados pastores, en cuanto se dedican al cuidado espiritual de su grey, de hecho atienden también al bien y a la prosperidad civil, uniendo su obra eficaz para ello con las autoridades públicas, en razón de su ministerio, y como conviene a los Obispos y aconsejando la obediencia a las leyes justas y el respeto a las autoridades legítimamente constituidas." (#19)

Continuemos orando por el Obispo Oscar para la bendición de que siga creciendo en la fe, la esperanza y el amor mientras guía a la Diócesis de San José.

También oramos por todos los sacerdotes durante el domingo del Buen Pastor en su llamado para servir en las parroquias locales siguiendo los pasos de Jesucristo. Esta semana tenemos una colecta especial para los sacerdotes retirados de la Diócesis de San José. Los fondos para esta colecta van directamente al fondo de jubilación. Su generosidad es un obsequio de aprecio para los sacerdotes, como el Padre Terry Sullivan y el Padre Kevin Joyce, los dos párrocos retirados de Santa Lucía, así como todos los sacerdotes de la diócesis.

Que Dios los bendiga, El Padre Mark
