The mission of Saint Lucy Parish is to lead people to a transformative relationship with Jesus Christ and the Catholic Church. We live our faith by welcoming and serving.

La misión de la Parroquia de Santa Lucía es guiar a la comunidad a una relación transformadora con Jesucristo y la Iglesia Católica. Vivimos nuestra fe en el servicio y al dar la bienvenida.

This coming Tuesday our nation will participate in what is commonly referred to as the "mid-term" election. We all know how contentious the past few election cycles have been and how this has continued during the past few months.

Having conversations about life is a necessary part of family and community where we recognize the other as our brother and sister even in our disagreements. To often we fall into the fault and sin of closing our heart and mind to the concerns and hopes of others and we see our elected leaders assigning the worst motives to their political rivals rather than addressing a greater need. As disciples of Jesus Christ we are called to be better and seek solutions that do not demean or dehumanize those with whom we disagree. We are a people of life and as our Church teaches, "As Catholics, we are led to raise questions for political life other than those that concentrate on individual, material well-being. Our focus is not on party affiliation, ideology, economics, or even competence and capacity to perform duties, as important as such issues are. Rather, we focus on what protects or threatens the dignity of every human life." (Faithful Citizenship #91) (Continued on page 5...)

El próximo martes, nuestra nación participará en lo que comúnmente se conoce como la elección "a medio plazo". Todos sabemos lo contencioso que han sido los últimos ciclos electorales y cómo esto ha continuado durante los últimos meses.

Conversaciones sobre la vida es una parte necesaria de la familia y la comunidad donde reconocemos al otro como nuestro hermano y hermana, incluso en nuestros desacuerdos. A menudo caemos en la culpa y el pecado de cerrar nuestro corazón y nuestra mente a las preocupaciones y esperanzas de los demás y vemos que nuestros líderes electos asignan los peores motivos a sus rivales políticos en lugar de atender las necesidades de todos. Como discípulos de Jesucristo, estamos llamados a buscar soluciones que no degraden o deshumanicen a aquellos con quienes no estamos de acuerdo. Somos un pueblo de vida y, como enseña nuestra Iglesia, "Como católicos, debemos plantear preguntas a los políticos que no sean aquellas que se concentran en el bienestar individual y material. Nuestro enfoque no está en la afiliación partidista, la ideología, la economía o incluso la competencia y la capacidad para realizar tareas, por importantes que sean estos temas. Más bien, nos centramos en lo que protege o amenaza la dignidad de cada vida humana". (Ciudadanía fiel # 91) (Continúa en la página 5...)

We are called to seek the common good as we form our conscience to follow God's plan in our individual life and that of the salvation of the world.

On a second note over the next few weeks many of our children will begin preparation for receiving the Sacrament of Reconciliation for the very first time. This is an exciting time for their families and the Church as we recognize how God calls us to be in unity with him and heal the wounds of sin separating us from one another. It is also a good time for all of us to remember the last time we participated in this Sacrament of healing. The Catholic Church asks that we celebrate the Sacrament at least once a year (if not more) in our spiritual life. We shouldn't be afraid and we offer many opportunities to celebrate this great Sacrament at St. Lucy.

Which brings us back to the beginning...perhaps we all need this Sacrament as a time of healing the divisiveness in our country...let us seek reconciliation with all as we pray....Our Father.

"We need to participate for the common good. Sometimes we hear: a good Catholic is not interested in politics. This is not true: good Catholics immerse themselves in politics by offering the best of themselves so that the leader can govern." -Pope Francis

God Bless, Fr. Mark

(Notas del Párroco, de la pagina 1)

Estamos llamados a buscar el buen común mientras formamos nuestra conciencia para seguir el plan de Dios en nuestra vida individual y la de la salvación del mundo.

En una segunda nota durante las próximas semanas, muchos de nuestros niños comenzarán la preparación para recibir el Sacramento de la Reconciliación por primera vez. Este es un momento emocionante para sus familias y para la Iglesia, ya que reconocemos cómo Dios nos llama a estar en unidad con él y a sanar las heridas del pecado que nos separan unos de otros. También es un buen momento para que todos recordemos la última vez que participamos en este Sacramento de curación. La Iglesia Católica nos pide que celebremos el Sacramento al menos una vez al año (si no más) en nuestra vida espiritual. No debemos tener miedo y ofrecemos muchas oportunidades para celebrar este gran Sacramento en Santa Lucía.

Lo que nos regresa al principio ... tal vez todos necesitamos este Sacramento para sanar la división en nuestro país ... busquemos la reconciliación con todos mientras oramos ... El Padre Nuestro.

"Necesitamos participar por el bien común. A veces escuchamos: un buen católico no está interesado en la política. Esto no es cierto: los buenos católicos se sumergen en la política ofreciendo lo mejor de sí mismos para que el líder pueda gobernar". -Papa Francisco

Que Dios los Bendiga, El Padre Mark

ALTAR DEL DIA DE LOS MUERTOS DAY OF THE DEAD ALTAR

The children in the catechesis made paper flowers, skulls, and other decorations for the "Altar del Día de los Muertos" (Day of the Dead Altar) which is in display inside our Church.

The Altar del Día De Los Muertos is part of the Mexican tradition to celebrate the All Saints Day and the All Souls Day. Creative and elaborated altars are built in the homes throughout Mexico and by Mexicans around the world. The tradition focuses on celebrating and remembering friends and family who have passed away. The altar is a mixture of symbolism that comes from both native traditions and Catholic beliefs brought to Mexico by the Spanish conquistadors. The altar is made with sugar skulls, marigolds, photos of the deceased and samples of their favorite food or drinks.

Please stop by the Altar de los Muertos and pray for the deceased loved family members in our community.

Los niños de la catequesis hicieron flores de papel, calaveras y otros adornos para el "Altar del Día de los Muertos" que está colocado dentro de nuestra Iglesia.

El Altar del Día de los Muertos es parte de la tradición mexicana para celebrar el Día de Todos los Santos y el Día de los Muertos. Creativos y elaborados altares son construidos en los hogares a través de México y de los mexicanos en todo el mundo. La tradición se centra en celebrar y recordar a amigos y familiares que han fallecido. El altar es una mezcla de simbolismo que viene de las tradiciones nativas y creencias católicas traídas a México por los conquistadores españoles. El altar está hecho con calaveras de azúcar, flores, fotos de los fallecidos y muestras de su alimentos favoritos o bebidas.

Por favor pare por el Altar del Día de los Muertos y reze por los miembros de las familias en nuestra comunidad que han fallecido.
