*However the Spirit works in you, work with that Spirit.
 However the Spirit bears love in you, let that love grow.
 If beauty or friendship feed your joy, bathe your heart in those things.
 If words or silence nourish your peace, give time to them to bless you.
 If baseball makes you more patient, then play baseball.
 Whatever nourishes the Spirit in you, practice, that it may bear fruit.
 And whatever diminishes your kindness or generosity, whatever chokes your faithfulness, or diverts your gentleness and self-control, whatever assaults the Spirit and its life in you, let go of those things.
 If watching the news or working too long, drains your compassion, then repent of those things and pray that you find a way to tend the Spirit in you, whose fruit already is there within you, whole and life-giving, quietly ripening.*

*Como el Espíritu trabaja en ti, trabaja con el Espíritu.
 Como el Espíritu te da amor, haga crecer ese amor.
 Si la belleza o la amistad alimentan su espíritu, bañe su corazón con esas cosas.
 Si las palabras o el silencio nutren la paz, deles tiempo para que lo bendigan.
 Si el béisbol le da más paciencia, entonces juegue béisbol.
 Lo que alimenta su espíritu, practíquelo, para que le dé fruto.
 Y todo lo que disminuye su bondad o generosidad, lo que ahoga su fidelidad, o desvía su mansedumbre y generosidad, lo que asalta el Espíritu y su vida en usted, deje a lado esas cosas.
 Si viendo las noticias o trabajando demasiado largo, drene su compasión, arrepíentase y ore, para encontrar una manera de cuidar el Espíritu, cuyo fruto ya está dentro de usted, todo y dador de vida, tranquilamente madurando.*
