The mission of Saint Lucy Parish is to lead people to a transformative relationship with Jesus Christ and the Catholic Church.
We live our faith by welcoming and serving.

La misión de la Parroquia de Santa Lucía es guiar a la comunidad a una relación transformadora con
Jesucristo y la Iglesia Católica.
Vivimos nuestra fe en el servicio
y al dar la bienvenida.

This weekend we celebrate as a country the blessing of labor and the work that is done. We give thanks to God for our work and the work so many of our community participate in through creating a better world. The Second Vatican Council reminded us of the importance of human labor and the good of work, "Human activity, to be sure, takes its significance from its relationship to man. Just as it proceeds from man, so it is ordered toward man. For when a man works he not only alters things and society, he develops himself as well." (Gaudium et Spes #35) Work is not something that must solely be done but something that adds to our relationship with each other and with God.

As the Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches, "In work, the person exercises and fulfills in part the potential inscribed in his nature. The primordial value of labor stems from man himself, its author and its beneficiary. Work is for man, not man for work. Everyone should be able to draw from work the means of providing for his life and that of his family, and of serving the human community." (CCC 2428) We are reminded of how work and play interact and how each give meaning to our relationships especially how work through adequate wages should support the growth and harmony of the domestic family and the greater good of society. (Continued on page 5...)

Este fin de semana celebramos como país la bendición del trabajo. Damos gracias a Dios por nuestro trabajo y el trabajo en el que muchos de nuestra comunidad participan para la creación de un mundo mejor. El Concilio Vaticano II nos recuerda la importancia del trabajo humano y el bien que nos da: "La actividad humana, así como procede del hombre, así también se ordena al hombre. Pues éste con su acción no sólo transforma las cosas y la sociedad, sino que se perfecciona a sí mismo." (Gaudium et Spes #35) El trabajo no es algo que solo debe hacerse, sino algo que se suma a nuestra relación entre nosotros y con Dios.

Como nos enseña el Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica: "Para el hombre, el trabajo es un deber y un derecho, mediante el cual colabora con Dios Creador. En efecto, trabajando con empeño y competencia, la persona actualiza las capacidades inscritas en su naturaleza, exalta los dones del Creador y los talentos recibidos; procura su sustento y el de su familia y sirve a la comunidad humana." (CCC2428) Se nos recuerda cómo interactúan el trabajo y el juego y cómo cada uno da sentido a nuestras relaciones, especialmente cómo el trabajo a través de salarios adecuados debería apoyar el crecimiento y la armonía de la familia doméstica y el bien común de la sociedad ".(Continúa en la página 5...)

But in a prophetic voice, the Fathers of the Church also recognized how work, divorced from human interaction, can become destructive to societal relationships. "A man is more precious for what he is than for what he has. Similarly, all that men do to obtain greater justice, wider brotherhood, a more humane disposition of social relationships has greater worth than technical advances. For these advances can supply the material for human progress, but of themselves alone they can never actually bring it about." (Gaudium et Spes #35)

In a world, and especially in Silicon Valley, that has become more computer driven, where interpersonal relationships become more difficult, where despair and hopelessness grows quickly within the veneer of prosperity, we are reminded that the true relationships with God and with each other are the goals of all the work we do. We are called to seek the other in blessing of community and faith.

Please take time this weekend to gather: to laugh, play, eat and enjoy the presence of the other and in this recognize the blessings of God and the labor of participating in his creation.

God Bless, Fr. Mark

(Notas del Párroco, de la pagina 1)

Pero con voz profética, los Padres de la Iglesia también reconocieron cómo el trabajo, divorciado de la interacción humana, puede llegar a ser destructivo para las relaciones sociales. "El hombre vale más por lo que es que por lo que tiene. Asimismo, cuanto llevan a cabo los hombres para lograr más justicia, mayor fraternidad y un más humano planteamiento en los problemas sociales, vale más que los progresos técnicos. Pues dichos progresos pueden ofrecer, como si dijéramos, el material para la promoción humana, pero por sí solos no pueden llevarla a cabo." (Gaudium et Spes #35)

En un mundo, y especialmente en Silicon Valley, que se ha vuelto más impulsado por la computadora, donde las relaciones interpersonales se vuelven más difíciles, donde la desesperación crece rápidamente dentro de la apariencia de prosperidad, se nos recuerda que las verdaderas relaciones con Dios y entre nosotros es el objetivo de todo el trabajo que hacemos. Estamos llamados a buscar al otro en la bendición y la fe.

Por favor, tómese un tiempo este fin de semana para reunirse: reír, jugar, comer y disfrutar de la presencia del otro y, en esto, reconocer las bendiciones de Dios y la labor de participar en su creación.

Que Dios los bendiga, el Padre Mark

From the Principal's Office

Dear Parishioners,

School is now in full swing. Our parents gathered together at our Kick Off Dinner where they socialized, shared a meal and signed up for their Fun Fest shifts.

What a fun night!

Yes, Fun Fest. We plan early and plan big for our largest fundraiser. So mark your calendars for the weekend of October 4,5,6th. The parish and school grounds will come alive with rides, delicious food and fun games. Save the date?

Our Kindergarteners are in the “big” school for the first time. It is refreshing to see the awe in their eyes and smiles on their faces as they experience everything for the first time. One of our kindergarten traditions is to take them on a walk around the school so they are introduced to the people and places on campus. Mrs. D’Amico was very creative every year. The students went on a safari to look for Bob, their class mascot. He was missing! They enthusiastically read and followed clues that took them in and out of many school rooms trying to find Bob. After a long safari and meeting many teachers, they found him. They were so excited to welcome him to their classroom. Everyday is a new experience for them and their excitement is contagious.

If you open the gates, they will come! We opened the gates for the first time on Aug. 14th and we have begun a new school journey with children eager to learn and teachers excited about their new classes. What a fantastic beginning!

Enjoy your Labor Day Weekend!
