A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

This weekend, Labor Day Weekend, traditionally marks the end of summer. Many of us "older" people remember this was the weekend that also signaled the beginning of the school year. A lot has changed but what continues to be important is the celebration of the blessing we receive when we enter into life-giving work that feeds not just the physical but the spiritual gifts of our lives.

Sacred Scripture reminds us of God's desire that labor fulfills the good in the world and the worker be given a just wage for their work. The Catholic Church throughout history reminds us that the work we do should bring dignity to each person and the respect and the rights of each person be safe guarded.

Pope Francis in an interview encouraged us to remember, "It is necessary to reaffirm that employment is necessary for society, for families and for individuals. Its primary value is the good of the human person, as it allows the individual to be fully realized as such, with his or her attitudes and intellectual, creative and manual capacities."

This echoes the teachings of modern popes from Leo XIII Encyclical "Rerum Novarum" to Pope John Paul II Encyclical "Laborem Exercens" where he writes, "Man must work out of regard for others, especially his own family, but also for the society he belongs...All this constitutes the moral obligation of work, understood in its wide sense." (#16) (Continued on page 2...)

Notas del Párroco

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Este fin de semana, fin de semana del Día del Trabajo, tradicionalmente marca el final del verano. Muchos de nosotros "mayores" recuerdan que este fue el fin de semana que también señaló el comienzo del año escolar. Mucho ha cambiado, pero lo que sigue siendo importante es la celebración de la bendición que recibimos cuando tenemos trabajo que da vida que alimenta no sólo el físico sino los dones espirituales de nuestras vidas.

La Sagrada Escritura nos recuerda el deseo de Dios de que el trabajo cumpla con el bien en el mundo y el trabajador reciba un salario justo por su trabajo. La Iglesia Católica, a lo largo de la historia, nos recuerda que el trabajo que hacemos debe traerle dignidad a cada persona y que el respeto y los derechos de cada persona deben estar protegidos.

El Papa Francisco en una entrevista nos animó a recordar, "Es necesario reafirmar que el empleo es necesario para la sociedad, para las familias y para los individuos. Su valor primordial es el bien de la persona humana, ya que permite al individuo ser plenamente realizado con sus actitudes y capacidades intelectuales, creativas y manuales".

Esto hace eco a las enseñanzas de los papas modernos de la Encíclica "Rerum Novarum" de León XIII a la Encíclica "Laborem Exercens" del Papa Juan Pablo II donde escribe: "El hombre debe trabajar por respeto al prójimo, especialmente por respeto a la propia familia, pero también a la sociedad a la que pertenece... Cuando haya que considerar los derechos morales de todo hombre respecto al trabajo. (#16) (Continúa en la página 2...)

We are reminded through John Paul II that our work should be for the betterment of society and this should be in union with the will and desire of God for a better, safer and more holy world. "Far from thinking that works produced by man's own talent and energy are in opposition to God's power, and that the rational creature exists as a kind of rival to the Creator, Christians are convinced that the triumphs of the human race are a sign of God's greatness and the flowering of his own mysterious design." (#25)

On behalf of our parish staff, we wish you a holy and blessed Labor Day weekend.

God Bless, Fr. Mark

(Notas del Párroco, de la pagina 1)

Juan Pablo II nos recuerda que nuestro trabajo debe ser para el mejoramiento de la sociedad y esto debe estar en unión con la voluntad y el deseo de Dios de un mundo mejor, más seguro y más santo. Los cristianos, lejos de pensar que las conquistas logradas por el hombre se oponen al poder de Dios y que la criatura racional pretende rivalizar con el Creador, están, por el contrario, persuadidos de que las victorias del hombre son signo de la grandeza de Dios y consecuencia de su inefable designio. (#25)

En nombre de nuestro personal de la parroquia, le deseamos un santo y bendito fin de semana del Día del Trabajo.

Que Dios Los Bendiga, El Padre Mark

ALPHA

ALPHA is a 10-week program that touches on and explores different topics of the Christian faith. Topics include, "Who is Jesus?", "Why and how should I read the Bible?", and "How does God guide us?" In this day and age, there are many people questioning their Christian faith, and others choose not to have faith in God at all. If you know of anyone that is in these crossroads, or if you are interested in deepening your faith, come to the ALPHA program at St. Frances Cabrini Parish, 15333 Woodard Rd., San Jose, CA 95124. There will be a free Introductory Dinner on Sept. 11, 2017, at 6:30pm, in Kelley Hall. To sign up, or if you have any questions, please send an e-mail to alicia_morales@comcast.net or call (408) 857-0523. We look forward to seeing you there.

Questions at End of Life: A Catholic Perspective

Tuesday, September 12 1-3 p.m.
Church of the Transfiguration – in the Church
4325 Jarvis Ave, San Jose 95118
Presenter: Father Joseph Benedict

Choices at end of life present unique challenges, particularly within a complex and technologically advanced society. Physical death is perceived within modern society as the ultimate human tragedy. From the Principal's Office

Dear Parishioners,

St. Lucy School is back in session. Faculty and Staff greeted our Pre-K- 8th graders last week. It was wonderful to have our community back together after a long summer. We greeted new faces in Pre-K through 7th grade.

You may have noticed a big change across the parking lot. The school building, Lally Center and the Julia Billiard Center (Convent) received a fresh coat of paint. It was very exciting to watch the transformation. Thank you for your stewardship to the parish, which allowed the painting to happen. The school parents, students, faculty and staff thank you!

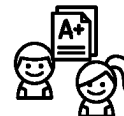

Sue Grover,
Principal

Our St. Lucy School theme this year is, "Respect is our Superpower". Our 8th grade class Family Group leaders (who lead a group of K-7th graders all year) will create religious lessons for their Family Group which will incorporate the trimester themes of: Respect Your Self, Friends and Community. The faculty has designed their classroom theme to incorporate famous superheroes. Students will learn how to respect themselves.

Our Student Council greeted new students as they walked on campus for the first time as St. Lucy Students. They also led Morning Assembly for the first time. We are thankful for our students and our families as we begin our new year!

Blessings,
Sue Grover, Principal
