The mission of Saint Lucy Parish is to lead people to a transformative relationship with Jesus Christ and the Catholic Church. We live our faith by welcoming and serving.

La misión de la Parroquia de Santa Lucía es guiar a la comunidad a una relación transformadora con Jesucristo y la Iglesia Católica. Vivimos nuestra fe en el servicio y al dar la bienvenida.

Glory Overshadowing the Cross

Jesus took Peter, James, and John and led them up a high mountain apart by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no fuller on earth could bleach them. Mark 9:2-3

Six days prior to this glorious event of the Transfiguration, Jesus spoke for the first time to His disciples about His pending crucifixion and death. He taught them that “the Son of Man must suffer greatly and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and rise after three days” (Mark 8:31). Recall that Peter had a difficult time accepting this teaching. Jesus went on to rebuke Peter for his refusal to accept this prophetic teaching and further explained that “Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me” (Mark 8:34). These disciples then had six days to ponder this prophecy of our Lord before witnessing the Transfiguration.

In your life, is there something that God is trying to say to you that you have difficulty accepting? If so, it will most likely be related to God’s call to you to take up your cross and follow Him. The Cross of Christ comes in many forms throughout life. It might be experienced when we allow the passion of anger to die so that pure mercy can be offered to one who has hurt us. (Continued on page 4...)

Gloria que eclipsa la cruz

Jesús tomó a Pedro, Santiago y Juan y los llevó aparte, a un monte alto. Y se transfiguró delante de ellos, y sus vestidos se volvieron de un blanco resplandeciente, como ningún batanero en la tierra podría blanquearlos. Marcos 9:2-3

Seis días antes de este glorioso evento de la Transfiguración, Jesús habló por primera vez a Sus discípulos acerca de Su inminente crucifixión y muerte. Les enseñó que “el Hijo del Hombre debe sufrir mucho y ser rechazado por los ancianos, los principales sacerdotes y los escribas, y ser ejecutado, y resucitar al cabo de tres días” (Marcos 8:31). Recuerde que a Pedro le resultó difícil aceptar esta enseñanza. Jesús continuó reprendiendo a Pedro porque no aceptaba esta enseñanza y explicó además que “el que quiera venir en pos de mí, niéguese a sí mismo, tome su cruz y sígame” (Marcos 8:34). Estos discípulos tuvieron entonces seis días para reflexionar sobre esta profecía antes de presenciar la Transfiguración.

En tu vida, ¿hay algo que Dios está tratando de decirte y que te cuesta aceptar? Si es así, lo más probable es que esté relacionado con el llamado de Dios a que tomes tu cruz y lo sigas. La Cruz de Cristo se presenta en muchas formas a lo largo de la vida. Podría experimentarse cuando permitimos que muera la pasión de la ira para poder ofrecer misericordia pura a quien nos ha lastimado. (Continúa en la página 4...)

Or it might be that God is calling you to step out in faith to embrace some endeavor that requires courage and trust. Or it might be that God is calling you to accept some hardship in life that is difficult to accept, such as the loss of a loved one, an illness, the loss of a job or any other difficulty that you struggle to accept with love and trust. Bitterness, resentment, anger, fear and the like are often the most difficult crosses we are called to embrace and let die.

If this resonates with you, then this story of the Transfiguration is for you. After giving these disciples six days to ponder the difficult news of His coming Cross, Jesus gives them hope and inspiration through this sacred encounter. Though it lasted for only a short time, this manifestation of Jesus' glory was all that these disciples needed to begin to accept Jesus' prediction of His passion. On one hand, they feared what Jesus said was going to happen. But on the other hand, they saw His glory and majesty. By combining these two experiences, these disciples were given a new hope and strength to trust that whatever was to happen in the future, God was in control.

We also need the consoling revelation of our Lord's glory to help us navigate the difficulties we will endure. For some, life is good, very good, and they walk with joy and ease with our Lord. But for others, life has taken a difficult turn and confusion has set in. If life is good for you right now, then rejoice that you are currently sharing a taste of the glory of the Transfiguration. Give thanks to God and tell Him with Saint Peter, "Rabbi, it is good that we are here!" Give thanks to him for the joy and consolation you currently experience. But if life is difficult for you right now, ponder those six days during which the disciples struggled with the prediction of the Lord's passion. Think about their confusion, doubts and fear. As you do, turn your eyes up the mountain. Know that the glory of God awaits you and that He wants to free you from all fear and anxiety. The mountain is climbed by a firm faith that is grounded in prayer. Make that journey with our Lord through prayer.

Reflect, today, upon this holy mountain to which you are called. Know that as you climb it with perseverance and determination, hope and joy will be given to you. Pray for the ability to trust in the God Who not only died a cruel death but also is radiant in glory for all eternity. Trust Him, turn to Him and commit to the journey ahead.- mycatholiclife.com

O podría ser que Dios te esté llamando a dar un paso de fe para emprender algún esfuerzo que requiera valentía y confianza. O puede ser que Dios te esté llamando a aceptar alguna dificultad en la vida que te resulta difícil de aceptar, como la pérdida de un ser querido, una enfermedad, la pérdida de un trabajo o cualquier otra dificultad que te cuesta aceptar con amor y confianza. La amargura, el resentimiento, la ira, el miedo y cosas similares son a menudo las cruces más difíciles que estamos llamados a abrazar y dejar morir.

Si esto te resuena, entonces esta historia de la Transfiguración es para ti. Después de darles a estos discípulos seis días para reflexionar sobre la difícil noticia de su cruz venidera, Jesús les da esperanza e inspiración a través de este encuentro sagrado. Aunque duró poco tiempo, esta manifestación de la gloria de Jesús fue todo lo que estos discípulos necesitaban para comenzar a aceptar la predicción de Jesús sobre su pasión. Por un lado, temían lo que Jesús dijo que iba a suceder. Pero por otro lado, vieron Su gloria y majestad. Al combinar estas dos experiencias, estos discípulos recibieron una nueva esperanza y fuerza para confiar en que cualquier cosa que sucediera en el futuro, Dios tenía el control.

También necesitamos la revelación consoladora de la gloria de nuestro Señor para ayudarnos a navegar las dificultades que soportaremos. Para algunos la vida es buena, muy buena, y caminan con alegría y tranquilidad con nuestro Señor. Pero para otros, la vida ha dado un giro difícil y ha comenzado la confusión. Si la vida es buena para ti en este momento, entonces regocíjate de que actualmente estás compartiendo una muestra de la gloria de la Transfiguración. Da gracias a Dios y dile con San Pedro: "¡Rabí, qué bueno que estemos aquí!" Dale gracias por la alegría y el consuelo que experimentas actualmente. Pero si la vida te resulta difícil en este momento, reflexiona sobre esos seis días durante los cuales los discípulos lucharon con la predicción de la pasión del Señor. Piense en su confusión, dudas y miedo. Mientras lo haces, vuelve la vista hacia la montaña. Sepan que la gloria de Dios les espera y que Él quiere liberarlos de todo temor y ansiedad. La montaña se escala con una fe firme que se basa en la oración. Haz ese viaje con nuestro Señor a través de la oración.

Reflexiona hoy sobre este monte santo al que estás llamado. Sepan que a medida que lo escalen con perseverancia y determinación, se les dará esperanza y alegría. Oren por la capacidad de confiar en el Dios que no sólo tuvo una muerte cruel sino que también está radiante en gloria por toda la eternidad. Confía en Él, acude a Él y comprométete con el camino que tienes por delante.- mycatholiclife.com
