RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Written in the Wounds

For all the condemnation Thomas the Doubter has received in 2000 years of homilies, I think there's something to admire in him.

Thomas is not unique. We all waver at some point, overcome by hesitation, distracted by the clamor of the world which seeks at every turn to shout above the whisper of the divine.

Thomas knows what he saw on Good Friday: his friend nailed to a cross, a sword driven through his body. He saw the blood and the water. He saw these things with his own eyes, eyes given to him by God, eyes which have never failed him before. And God doesn't ask us to suspend reality to believe in Him. He only asks us to be discerning about how that reality is interpreted in our hearts.

Thomas knows the man before him is either a fraud, preying on the hopes and anxieties of the traumatized disciples, or he is the Christ, the Savior of the world, accomplisher of impossible things. But where to look, to tell the difference? (Continued on page 4...)

RECONOCE A DIOS EN TUS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS

Por Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Escrito en las Heridas

A pesar de toda la condena que Tomás el Incrédulo ha recibido en 2000 años de homilias, creo que hay algo que admirar en él.

Tomás no es el único. Todos vacilamos en algún momento, vencidos por la indecisión, distraídos por el clamor del mundo que busca a cada paso gritar por encima del susurro de lo divino.

Tomás sabe lo que vio el Viernes Santo: a su amigo clavado en una cruz y una espada atravesándole el cuerpo. Vio la sangre y el agua. Vio estas cosas con sus propios ojos, ojos que Dios le dio, ojos que nunca antes le habían fallado. Y Dios no nos pide que suspendamos la realidad para creer en Él. Sólo nos pide que seamos discernidores sobre cómo se interpreta esa realidad en nuestro corazón.

Tomás sabe que el hombre que tiene ante él es o un fraude, que se aprovecha de las esperanzas y ansiedades de los discípulos traumatizados, o es el Cristo, el Salvador del mundo, realizador de cosas imposibles. ¿Pero dónde mirar para notar la diferencia? (Continúa en la página 4...)

Satan once appeared to the great mystic saint, Teresa of Avila, disguised as Jesus. She knew instantly that he was a fraud. Enraged, he demanded to know where his deception had failed. "You have no wounds," she told him simply.

Could we have accepted a savior who did not bleed? I don't think we could, because sooner or later, we would all stand before him and say, "Here is where the world hurt me. Here, and here, and here. What about you?" Christ can point to his hands, his feet, his side. "Here, and here, and here," he can say. "And I overcame them all."

It's the wounds, you see. The truth is in the wounds.©LPi

La Satanás se apareció una vez a la gran mística, santa Teresa de Ávila, disfrazado de Jesús. Ella supo al instante que él era un fraude. Enfurecido, exigió saber en qué había fallado su engaño. "No tienes heridas," le dijo simplemente.

¿Podríamos haber aceptado un salvador que no sangrara? No creo que pudiéramos, porque tarde o temprano todos nos presentaríamos ante él y diríamos: "Aquí es donde el mundo me lastimó. Aquí, aquí y aquí. ¿Y a ti?" Cristo puede señalar sus manos, sus pies, su costado. "Aquí, y aquí, y aquí," puede decir. "Y los superé a todos."

Son las heridas, como puedes ver. La verdad está en las heridas.©LPi

Message from the Principal

Dear Parishioners,

Our St. Lucy students and community is thriving and full of events and exciting news!

On Holy Thursday our 8th grade students lead the school in a wonderful Easter Triduum prayer service. Each Family Group (a student from each grade, led by an 8th grade student) spent time together reenacting the Last Supper. Students listened to scripture, had their hands washed and broke bread together. Following the prayer service, students walked to church to the slow beat of a drum signifying Jesus' long walk with the cross. In the church, the 8th grade students led our student body in a prayerful Stations of the Cross. This service ended with Veneration of the Cross and the family groups concluded the day with an Easter celebration of new life. It was a solemn experience for our community reminding us of Jesus' sacrifice for the forgiveness of our sins and that Jesus has risen.

I'm thrilled to share the students of the Class of 2024 received High School acceptance notifications and we couldn't be prouder. They have worked so hard and it exciting to see them accomplish a goal they set for themselves. Great job Class of 2024!

Jr. High students are busy creating hypothesis and conducting experiments in preparation for the Science Fair, while students across campus have created masterpieces in art. We are looking forward to our upcoming STREAM Celebration where student artwork is showcased, Science Fair projects are presented and displayed, and our classrooms are transformed with STREAM activities for our students. It is a wonderful evening of food, community and fun!

I invite you to come and experience St. Lucy School. Schedule a tour to see our faculty and students in action and learn more about our curriculum, program and community.
