Life's Endless Pursuit

Some years ago, I heard a school dean speaking to a group of parents at Archbishop Mitty High School. Many of the parents were complaining that their children are overwrought with too many sport or club activities to successfully complete their academic pursuits. His answer to this eternal complaint: if you want something done, ask a busy person. He quoted a study that suggested a greater academic success rate among students capable of arranging their time to complete many different activities. While this may still hold true for some students, national academic scores vary and often do not bear any resemblance to this theory.

Still, in theory at least, a physical principle parallels this idea; namely, a body in motion tends to stay in motion. People who organize and plan their lives can fulfill what they intend—perhaps more successfully than those less inclined to do so. However a busy a person may be, anyone of us can only do one thing at a time. (Continued on page 5...)

La Búsqueda de la Vida Sin Fin

Hace algunos años, escuché al decano de una escuela hablar con un grupo de padres en la Escuela Archbishop Mitty. Muchos de los padres se quejaban de que sus hijos estaban sobrecargados con demasiados deportes o actividades de clubes para completar con éxito sus actividades académicas. Su respuesta a esta eterna queja: si quieres que se haga algo, pídeselo a una persona ocupada. Citó un estudio en donde había una mayor tasa de éxito académico entre los estudiantes capaces de organizar su tiempo para realizar muchas actividades diferentes. Aunque, esto aún puede ser cierto para algunos estudiantes, los puntajes académicos nacionales varían y, a menudo, no se parecen en nada a esta teoría.

Aún así, al menos en teoría, un principio físico es paralelo a esta idea; es decir, un cuerpo en movimiento tiende a permanecer en movimiento. Las personas que organizan y planifican sus vidas pueden lograr lo que se proponen, quizás con más éxito que aquellas menos inclinadas a hacerlo. Por muy ocupada que esté una persona, cualquiera de nosotros solo puede hacer una cosa a la vez. (Continúa en la página 5...)

Donovan—a somewhat famous pop singer from the 60's—recorded songs for a film directed by Franco Zeffirelli "Brother Sun, Sister Moon." In one of the songs, the lyric read, "if you want to live life free take your time go slowly-do few things but do them well, heartfelt work grows purely."

This hardly seems to embody the busy person but anyone that works for what is valuable will understand the sentiment of this song's lyrics. Being capable of seeing a vision and working toward the vision's end is very much in keeping with Jesus' understanding of God's reign among us.

When reviewing the past 75 years of St. Lucy Parish, it is edifying to read about the many named and unnamed parishioners that built this Church into what it is today. There is still much more that we can achieve, and while obstacles may exist, we can do great things when we work together. A busy person is limited as well, but when anyone starts to work with others, these limitations give way to a communal effort.

The school administrator to whom I referred earlier is correct—and so is Donovan. Great things happen when many events coalesce to bring about a higher consciousness for truth and what will serve the good of all people. We depend upon this cooperative effort to bring about the communal good we create with one another. Ultimately, we attribute all these works to God.

As we begin to celebrate 75 years as a parish, let us commit to doing things well. In the midst of our busy-ness, may we encounter the call of God's reign and attend to the vision it lends for our future.

(Notas del Párroco, de la pagina 1)

Donovan, un cantante pop bastante famoso de los años 60, grabó canciones para una película dirigida por Franco Zeffirelli, "Brother Sun, Sister Moon". En una de las canciones, la letra decía: "si quieres vivir una vida libre, tómate tu tiempo, ve despacio, haz pocas cosas pero hazlas bien, el trabajo sincero crece con pureza".

Esto difícilmente parece encarnar a la persona ocupada, pero cualquiera que trabaje por lo que es valioso entenderá el sentimiento de la letra de esta canción. Ser capaz de ver una visión y trabajar hacia el fin de la visión está muy de acuerdo con la comprensión de Jesús del reino de Dios entre nosotros.

Al repasar los últimos 75 años de la Parroquia de Santa Lucía, es edificante leer acerca de los muchos feligreses con nombre y sin nombre que construyeron esta Iglesia en lo que es hoy. Todavía hay mucho más que podemos lograr, y aunque pueden existir obstáculos, podemos hacer grandes cosas cuando trabajamos juntos. Una persona ocupada también está limitada, pero cuando alguien comienza a trabajar con otros, estas limitaciones dan paso a un esfuerzo comunitario.

El administrador de la escuela al que me referí antes tiene razón, y Donovan también. Grandes cosas suceden cuando muchos eventos se unen para generar una mayor conciencia de la verdad y para lo que sirve al bien de todas las personas. Dependemos de este esfuerzo cooperativo para lograr el bien común que creamos entre nosotros. En última instancia, atribuimos todas estas obras a Dios.

Al comenzar a celebrar 75 años como parroquia, comprometámonos a hacer las cosas bien. En medio de nuestras ocupaciones, que podamos encontrar el llamado del reino de Dios y prestar atención a la visión que nos brinda para nuestro futuro.

JOIN THE REVIVAL! The Diocese of San José along dioceses across the country are launching a three-year National Eucharistic Revival this year on the weekend of the Feast of Corpus Christi. The Revival will begin locally on Sunday, June 19th with a Mass with Bishop Oscar Cantú at the Cathedral Basilica of St. Joseph, followed by a Eucharistic Procession around the Cathedral. All are invited to join Bishop Cantú for the Mass, Eucharistic Procession, and Benediction. This is the first of many opportunities available for the faithful in our dioceses to be part of this revival in the next three years. Information about Eucharistic Revival at dsj.org/eucharistic-revival. Share image in social media.
