New Priest in Residence at St. Lucy

Some say that life in the Bay Area is like living in a bubble within a bubble. Given that pithy sentiment, it's not hard to imagine a culture that is characterized by various subcultures each with their distinct language, convictions, and values. These may not be antithetical to the understanding that depict a homogeneous view of a prevailing culture in the United States. We can be sure that a willingness to become a worthy citizen remains the most valuable expression of belonging to any cultural context. Those that say we live in a bubble within a bubble have only identified the difference of what it's like to live outside of the Bay Area without recognizing the unique character of our multicultural experience.

Nuevo Sacerdote en Residencia en Santa Lucía

Algunos dicen que la vida en el Área de la Bahía es como vivir en una burbuja dentro de otra burbuja. Dado ese sentimiento conciso, no es difícil imaginar una cultura que se caracterice por varias subculturas, cada una con su propio idioma, convicciones y valores. Estos pueden no ser antitéticos al entendimiento que representa una visión homogénea de una cultura prevaeciente en los Estados Unidos. Podemos estar seguros de que la voluntad de convertirse en un ciudadano digno sigue siendo la expresión más valiosa de pertenencia a cualquier contexto cultural. Aquellos que dicen que vivimos en una burbuja dentro de una burbuja solo han identificado la diferencia de cómo es vivir fuera del Área de la Bahía sin reconocer el carácter único de nuestra experiencia multicultural.

Parte de este cuadro es la extraordinaria riqueza que se encuentra en esta región de California. Muchos llegan aquí como lo hicieron una vez durante la búsqueda del oro de 1800 creyendo que podrían obtener una gran riqueza personal, jubilarse o comenzar otra carrera. (Continúa en la página 5...)

Since the 19th century until today, the Bay Area has attracted people from all parts of the globe, and many have embraced the fundamental identity of becoming virtuous citizens to be part of our great nation. Anyone will likely find that the various regions of the US are as unique as the people that live there, and while we may characterize the Bay Area as being multicultural, the same microcosms of culture may be found in metropolitan areas throughout the world.

Another part of this picture is education. Naturally, in an area like ours, institutions of higher learning attract many who seek knowledge to prepare themselves for the road ahead. Today, I'm happy to introduce to you a priest to serve in our parish as he studies at Santa Clara University for a degree in counseling and psychology. Fr. David Olaniyi was born and raised in Kakuri Kaduna, Kaduna State, Nigeria. He studied at Saints Peter and Paul Major Seminary Ibadan, Nigeria and was ordained a priest on January 5, 2013, for the Diocese of Osogbo. Since his ordination, he has worked in the Diocese of Osogbo as an Assistant Diocesan Youth Chaplain from 2013-2018, as the Diocesan Youth Chaplain from 2018-2020, and as School Chaplain to Holy Spirit Catholic Secondary School in Modakeke from 2019-2020. Meanwhile he served as Pastor at St. Peter Catholic Church from 2016-2019, and at Saints John and Paul, from 2019-2020. His Bishop, Most Rev. John Oyejola is happy that Fr. David will complete his studies here and serve the people of God at St. Lucy Parish. I'm grateful to Fr. David's presence among us and hope that you extend every courtesy of welcome to him.

Welcome Fr. David Olaniyi
Bienvenido Padre David Olaniyi

(Notas del Párroco, de la pagina 1)

Desde el siglo XIX hasta hoy, el Área de la Bahía ha atraído a personas de todas partes del mundo, y muchos han adoptado la identidad fundamental de convertirse en ciudadanos virtuosos para ser parte de nuestra gran nación. Es probable que cualquiera descubra que las diversas regiones de los EE. UU. son tan únicas como las personas que viven allí, y aunque podemos caracterizar el Área de la Bahía como multicultural, el mismo microcosmos de cultura se puede encontrar en las áreas metropolitanas de todo el mundo.

Otra parte de este cuadro es la educación. Naturalmente, en un área como la nuestra, las instituciones de educación superior atraen a muchos que buscan conocimiento para prepararse para el camino por delante. Hoy, me complace presentarles a un sacerdote que servirá en nuestra parroquia mientras estudia en la Universidad de Santa Clara para obtener un título en consejería y psicología. Padre David Olaniyi nació y creció en Kakuri Kaduna, estado de Kaduna, Nigeria. Estudió en el Seminario Mayor de los Santos Pedro y Pablo de Ibadan, Nigeria y fue ordenado sacerdote el 5 de enero de 2013 para la Diócesis de Osogbo. Desde su ordenación, ha trabajado en la Diócesis de Osogbo como Asistente al Capellán Juvenil Diocesano de 2013 a 2018, como Capellán Juvenil Diocesano de 2018 a 2020 y como Capellán Escolar en la Escuela Secundaria Católica Holy Spirit en Modakeke de 2019 a 2020. Mientras tanto, se desempeñó como pastor en la Iglesia Católica St. Peter de 2016 a 2019, y en Saints John and Paul, de 2019 a 2020. Su obispo, el Reverendísimo John Oyejola, está feliz de que el Padre David completará sus estudios aquí y servirá al pueblo de Dios en la Parroquia de Santa Lucía. Estoy agradecido con la presencia del Padre David entre nosotros y le extiendo todas las cortesías de bienvenida.

Join Steven Ray as he takes you on a journey following Peter: the rugged fisherman Jesus chose to lead His Church. You will follow Peter's path on location in Rome and the Holy Land and from Galilee to Rome to discover answers about the major role of the Papacy in the saga of salvation.

In the next journey you will follow Mary's extraordinary journey on location in Israel, Turkey and Greece. You'll clearly understand Mary's Immaculate Conception, her role as Intercessor, her Assumption into Heaven and more.

Next, you will sit at the feet of the apostles, as the Apostolic Fathers celebrate the Eucharist in hiding and tremble at the suffering they endured for Jesus Christ. Retrace their steps with Steven Ray through Israel, Turkey, France and Italy.

And finally, Steven Ray will take you through Jordan, Israel, Sinai and Egypt. You'll witness God's power demonstrated through Elijah and Elisha, the conscience of the kingdom, as they confront the powers arrayed against them, preparing the way for Christ.

FAITH

Our readings today explore how faith begins and how faith works. Faith begins with God's initiative of love, together with God's promise about the future. The passage from Hebrews urges readers to have an assured confidence in God, who promised and delivered a lasting legacy to Abraham. The book of Wisdom reminds readers of the God who promised and delivered freedom from slavery during the Exodus. In the Gospel passage from Luke, Jesus begins with the promise that "your Father is pleased to give you the Kingdom," before describing how to live faithfully during times when God seems absent. God's promises mean that God is fully invested in our future. Living in these promises, we can confidently let go of fear and insecurity. We can anticipate that when God intervenes in our lives, it will be for our benefit. And we can become God's partners in fulfilling these divine promises. Copyright
