The mission of Saint Lucy Parish is to lead people to a transformative relationship with Jesus Christ and the Catholic Church. We live our faith by welcoming and serving.

La misión de la Parroquia de Santa Lucía es guiar a la comunidad a una relación transformadora con Jesucristo y la Iglesia Católica. Vivimos nuestra fe en el servicio y al dar la bienvenida.

Eucharistic Revival

In August of 2019, a Pew Research study showed that less than 1/3 of self-identified Catholics believe Jesus is present in the bread and wine transformed into his body and blood by transubstantiation. The words of institution; this is my body, this is my blood, memorializes what Jesus declares at the Last Supper. The real presence of Jesus body, blood, divinity, and soul remains the central tenet of Catholic teaching and practice.

The study represents a failure to instruct and form this generation of Catholics in church teaching well enough, and it remains troubling for many Catholic bishops, priests, and catechist. According to the research, 2/3 of Catholics believe that the bread and wine symbolize the body and blood of Jesus. Church teaching continues to emphasize that Jesus is present in the bread and wine and become Jesus' body and blood through transubstantiation. This teaching is further stressed by our share in offering to God what God has given to us; namely, Jesus himself present in the sacrifice offered at the altar during the Eucharistic prayer. (Continued on page 5...)

Resurgimiento Eucarístico

En agosto de 2019, un estudio de Pew Research mostró que menos de 1/3 de los católicos que se identifican a sí mismos creen que Jesús está presente en el pan y el vino transformados en su cuerpo y sangre por transubstanciación. Las palabras de institución; esto es mi cuerpo, esta es mi sangre, recuerda lo que Jesús declara en la Última Cena. La presencia real del cuerpo, la sangre, la divinidad y el alma de Jesús sigue siendo el principio central de la enseñanza y la práctica católica.

El estudio representa un fracaso para instruir y formar suficientemente bien a esta generación de católicos en la enseñanza de la iglesia, y sigue siendo preocupante para muchos obispos, sacerdotes y catequistas católicos. Según la investigación, 2/3 de los católicos creen que el pan y el vino simbolizan el cuerpo y la sangre de Jesús. La enseñanza de la Iglesia continúa enfatizando que Jesús está presente en el pan y el vino y se convierte en el cuerpo y la sangre de Jesús a través de la transubstanciación. Esta enseñanza se enfatiza aún más por nuestra participación en ofrecer a Dios lo que Dios nos ha dado; es decir, Jesús mismo presente en el sacrificio ofrecido en el altar durante la oración eucarística. (Pastor's Notes Continued from page 1)

As one bishop stated, all of us bear some responsibility for this failure. As a result, the USCCB inaugurated a Eucharistic revival that began on Corpus Christi Sunday this last June. Many Catholics are not aware of this revival or when it began. We marked this occasion at St. Lucy after the 1pm Spanish Mass on June 16 with a Eucharistic procession around the parking lot with the Blessed Sacrament. The three-year revival will begin at the diocesan level, then to the parish level in the second year, and will conclude with a National Eucharistic Congress, the first of its kind in 40 years.

We all do well to understand church teaching and scripture regarding the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. Often, few of us take the time to consider what we receive in the gift of the Eucharist. When we give ourselves to contemplation before the Blessed Sacrament, there's little doubt that we experience Jesus' presence to us in a way that is unsurpassed. We unite ourselves to Jesus and the mystery of his death and resurrection in a spiritual and palpable way. Jesus is present to us always, and God will never abandon us, and we say the words that Jesus himself said for us to do in memory of him.

All sacraments require matter and form. In the Eucharist, the bread and the wine is the matter, and the words are the form. When a priest acts as the anima Christi, we recognize Jesus' presence as did the disciples who were on the road to Emmaus when they encountered the living Christ in the breaking of the bread.

Como dijo un obispo, todos nosotros tenemos alguna responsabilidad por este fracaso. Como resultado, la USCCB inauguró un renacimiento eucarístico que comenzó el domingo de Corpus Christi en junio pasado. Muchos católicos no están al tanto de este resurgimiento ni de cuándo comenzó. Celebramos esta ocasión en Santa Lucía después de la Misa en español de la 1:00 p. m. el 16 de junio con una procesión eucarística alrededor del estacionamiento con el Santísimo Sacramento. El resurgimiento de tres años comenzará a nivel diocesano, luego a nivel parroquial en el segundo año, y concluirá con un Congreso Eucarístico Nacional, el primero de su tipo en 40 años.

Todos hacemos bien en entender la enseñanza de la iglesia y las escrituras con respecto a la presencia real de Jesús en la Eucaristía. A menudo, pocos de nosotros nos tomamos el tiempo para considerar lo que recibimos en el don de la Eucaristía. Cuando nos entregamos a la contemplación ante el Santísimo Sacramento, no hay duda de que experimentamos la presencia de Jesús en nosotros de una manera insuperable. Nos unimos a Jesús y al misterio de su muerte y resurrección de manera espiritual. Jesús está presente para nosotros siempre, y Dios nunca nos abandonará, y decimos las palabras que Jesús mismo dijo para que hiciéramos en memoria suya.

Todos los sacramentos requieren materia y forma. En la Eucaristía, el pan y el vino es la materia, y las palabras, la forma. Cuando un sacerdote actúa como anima Christi, reconocemos la presencia de Jesús como lo hicieron los discípulos que iban camino de Emaús cuando se encontraron con Cristo vivo al partir el pan.

HUMILITY

Today's readings praise the virtue of humility and offer concrete ways for us to become more humble. The Book of Sirach suggests a practical reason for acting with humility: humble people are more likeable than the arrogant. Even God "finds favor" with those who humble themselves. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus provides real-world suggestions for growing in humility and teaches us never to assume we are better than others. His words change our outward behavior and expand our hearts and minds to care about people we might have dismissed before. This practical, almost "folksy" wisdom about humility helps us behave better in daily life and makes our lofty goal of eternal life more accessible. Our reading from Hebrews affirms that heaven is indeed approachable. The personal love and sacrifice of Jesus have opened "the city of the living God" to us. Humility prepares us for paradise.
