The mission of Saint Lucy Parish is to lead people to a transformative relationship with Jesus Christ and the Catholic Church. We live our faith by welcoming and serving.

La misión de la Parroquia de Santa Lucía es guiar a la comunidad a una relación transformadora con Jesucristo y la Iglesia Católica. Vivimos nuestra fe en el servicio y al dar la bienvenida.

Abundance and Scarcity

As many of you may know, we are nearing the end of cycle C readings from Luke, and the 2022 liturgical year will conclude with the first Sunday of Advent. The lectionary of readings is set up to highlight one of the synoptic (Mathew, Mark, or Luke) gospels each year. When we begin the next liturgical year, the Sunday readings will be from Mark's Gospel.

Apocalypse means revelation and is more commonly used to mean the end of time. The Nicene Creed states that Jesus will come to judge the living and dead. As we draw nearer to the end of this liturgical year of 2022, we'll hear scriptures that parallel this portion of the creed; the end of time for next 11 weeks until the first Sunday of Advent on November 27.

With all the disasters reported in the news, particularly wildfires, floods, and drought, some may imagine that the end is nearer than we thought. (Continued on page 5...)

Abundancia y Escasez

Como muchos de ustedes sabrán, nos acercamos al final del ciclo C de lecturas de Lucas, y el año litúrgico 2022 concluirá con el primer domingo de Adviento. El leccionario de lecturas está configurado para resaltar uno de los evangelios sinópticos (Mateo, Marcos o Lucas) cada año. Cuando comencemos el próximo año litúrgico, las lecturas dominicales serán del Evangelio de Marcos.

Apocalipsis significa revelación y se usa más comúnmente para referirse al fin de los tiempos. El Credo afirma que Jesús vendrá a juzgar a vivos y muertos. A medida que nos acerquemos al final de este año litúrgico de 2022, escucharemos pasajes de las Escrituras que son paralelos a esta parte del credo; el fin de los tiempos para las próximas 11 semanas hasta el primer domingo de Adviento el 27 de noviembre.

Con todos los desastres que se informan en las noticias, particularmente los incendios forestales, las inundaciones y las sequías, algunos pueden imaginar que el final está más cerca de lo que pensábamos. (Continúa en la página 5...)

Others may attribute these recent disasters to the revelation of God's judgment on human behavior, yet we know that bad things happen to people of goodwill. As often as they occur, there is no reasonable explanation for why bad things happen to good people or why bad people profit from good things happening. Our choice for good has its own way of showing us the path to eternal life—especially when life becomes difficult. We may be tempted to ask why this is happening to me or to lose faith in God because things are not going as planned. Yet, the scripture is clear about God's faithfulness to us; it's everlasting, and because we can only realize a small measure of God's faithfulness, so we depend on God's justice and mercy to direct our thoughts and actions. We will not find it completely as we live now, but we believe that in the end God's justice and mercy will prevail in a way that we cannot fully anticipate.

A catechist decided to have the 2nd grade class memorize Psalm 23, one of the most quoted passages in the Bible. She gave the children a month to learn the passage. One little boy was excited about the task, but he just couldn't memorize the Psalm. Although he practiced and practiced, he could hardly get past the first line. The day came for the children to recite Psalm 23 before the assembly at Mass. The little boy was nervous. When his turn came, he stepped up to the microphone and proudly said, "The Lord is my Shepherd and that's all I need to know!"

As Christians, we remain hopeful that God's faithfulness will continue to reveal for us the path to salvation.

Otros pueden atribuir estos desastres recientes a la revelación del juicio de Dios sobre el comportamiento humano, pero sabemos que a las personas de buena voluntad les suceden cosas malas. Por muy frecuente que ocurra, no existe una explicación razonable de por qué le suceden cosas malas a las personas buenas o por qué las personas malas les sucedan cosas buenas. Nuestra elección por el bien tiene su propia manera de mostrarnos el camino a la vida eterna, especialmente cuando la vida se vuelve difícil. Podemos tener la tentación de preguntar por qué me está pasando esto o de perder la fe en Dios porque las cosas no salen según lo planeado. Sin embargo, la escritura es clara acerca de la fidelidad de Dios hacia nosotros; es eterna, y debido a que solo podemos darnos cuenta de una pequeña medida de la fidelidad de Dios, entonces dependemos de la justicia y la misericordia de Dios para dirigir nuestros pensamientos y acciones. No la encontraremos completamente mientras vivimos ahora, pero creemos que al final la justicia y la misericordia de Dios prevalecerán de una manera que no podemos anticipar por completo.

Un catequista decidió que la clase de segundo grado memorizara el Salmo 23, uno de los pasajes más citados de la Biblia. Les dio a los niños un mes para aprender el pasaje. Un niño pequeño estaba entusiasmado con la tarea, pero simplemente no podía memorizar el Salmo. Aunque practicaba y practicaba, apenas podía pasar de la primera línea. Llegó el día de que los niños recitaran el Salmo 23 ante la asamblea en la Misa. El pequeño estaba nervioso. Cuando llegó su turno, se acercó al micrófono y dijo con orgullo: "¡El Señor es mi pastor y eso es todo lo que necesito saber!"

Como cristianos, mantenemos la esperanza de que la fidelidad de Dios seguirá revelándonos el camino de la salvación.

Message from the Principal

Wow...school started with a bang! Our hallways, classrooms and campus are full once again with students and parents. Even though we are only a couple of weeks into school, we have wasted no time welcoming back our students, returning and new families. Kinder families met each other before the school year started at the Kinder Dessert Night, parents mingled at the Welcome Coffee on the first day of school and at the Kick-Off Dinner, and met their child's teachers at Back-to-School Night. Students met their buddies and enjoyed getting to know each other, Student Council is busy getting snack shack up and running and planning our first spirit rally. The Parent Leadership committees have met a couple of times and have begun planning our community events and room parents are coordinating classroom events.

We have already had so many wonderful events and meetings, I'm excited for what the year has in store for our St Lucy community!

Fun Fest is back!!!!!! St. Lucy School will light up the sky for Fun Fest on October 21-23. Join us for rides, games, delicious food, entertainment and the silent and live auctions.
