The mission of Saint Lucy Parish is to lead people to a transformative relationship with Jesus Christ and the Catholic Church. We live our faith by welcoming and serving.

La misión de la Parroquia de Santa Lucía es guiar a la comunidad a una relación transformadora con Jesucristo y la Iglesia Católica. Vivimos nuestra fe en el servicio y al dar la bienvenida.

The Examined Life

The ancient Greek philosophers asked questions about the nature of being human. Their questions led them to the realization that an unexamined life is far less meaningful than its opposite. This observation is an appealing idea because of its simplicity and near universal application. Mindfulness is essential for anyone pursuing Christian Spirituality. Learning to distinguish between being, essence, and substance is the first step in a process that lasts a lifetime with no definitive end.

Questions like who am I or what is fundamental to all human beings, keep people of every generation thinking about finding new ways to stay on the path that leads to truth. This eternal musing remains the catalyst for mindful examination. Year after year, we may revisit these questions in order to give a new answer and distinguish the general from the specific. Each life is unique. The individual's consciousness makes the examined life possible. (Continued on page 5...)

La Vida Examinada

Los antiguos filósofos griegos hacían preguntas sobre la naturaleza del ser humano. Sus preguntas los llevaron a darse cuenta de que una vida no examinada es mucho menos significativa que su opuesto. Esta observación es una idea atractiva debido a su simplicidad y aplicación casi universal. La atención plena es esencial para cualquiera que busque la espiritualidad cristiana. Aprender a distinguir entre ser, esencia y sustancia es el primer paso de un proceso que dura toda la vida y no tiene un final definitivo.

Preguntas como quién soy o qué es fundamental para todos los seres humanos, mantienen a personas de todas las generaciones pensando en encontrar nuevas formas de mantenerse en el camino que conduce a la verdad. Esta meditación eterna sigue siendo el catalizador para el examen atento. Año tras año, podemos revisar estas preguntas para dar una nueva respuesta y distinguir lo general de lo específico. Cada vida es única. La conciencia del individuo hace posible la vida examinada. (Continúa en la página 5...)

Members of the Jesuit order are meant to prayerfully consider routine events at set times of the day. For many in the order, practicing a daily examen provides a conscientious way to judge what experiences were good and those not so good. Many religious and lay alike have adopted this practice for its practical and prayerful qualities. Recognizing the good and bad events of life allows us to store the memories that make life worth living and helps us to heal the more difficult experiences of life. Indeed, even while the unpleasant experiences of life are not easily forgotten, such ought not deter anyone from examining life's daily experiences. The examined life recalls an unrivalled wisdom, and it is vital for growing to full maturity as a follower of Christ.

As we enter the fall season, the growth we experience now will have resonance for the rest and recreation of winter. It will prepare us for the next harvest that is upon us and the light and fluid air of spring. From one season to the next, we change. To acknowledge change as it occurs allow us to live in the present. As we live in the present we become more keenly aware of ourselves as unique individuals who acknowledge their part in the communal consciousness.

If the examined life is one worth living, then all do well to examine life daily. Yet, if it is so worthwhile, why then do so many lack time for mindfulness? No doubt the ancient Greek philosophers wondered the same as they discerned the being, essence, and substance of what it means to be human. It's a limitless search with no definitive end, except for death. Even so, the examined life is essential to our good health and spiritual well being.

Los miembros de la orden jesuita consideran en oración los eventos de rutina en determinados momentos del día. Para muchos en la orden, practicar un examen diario proporciona una forma consciente de juzgar qué experiencias fueron buenas y cuáles no tanto. Muchos religiosos y laicos han adoptado esta práctica por sus cualidades prácticas y de oración. Reconocer los eventos buenos y malos de la vida nos permite almacenar los recuerdos que hacen que la vida valga la pena y nos ayuda a sanar las experiencias más difíciles de la vida. De hecho, aunque las experiencias desagradables de la vida no se olvidan fácilmente, eso no debería disuadir a nadie de examinar las experiencias diarias de la vida. La vida examinada da una sabiduría inigualable, y es vital para crecer hasta la plena madurez como seguidor de Cristo.

A medida que entramos en la temporada de otoño, el crecimiento que experimentamos ahora tendrá resonancia para el descanso del invierno. Nos preparará para la próxima cosecha y el aire ligero y fluido de la primavera. De una temporada a la siguiente, cambiamos. Reconocer el cambio a medida que ocurre nos permite vivir en el presente. Viviendo en el presente, somos más conscientes de nosotros mismos como individuos únicos que reconocen su parte en la conciencia comunitaria.

Si la vida examinada es una que vale la pena vivir, entonces todos harían bien en examinarla diariamente. Sin embargo, si vale tanto la pena, ¿por qué a tantos les falta tiempo para la atención plena? Sin duda, los antiguos filósofos griegos se preguntaron lo mismo al discernir el ser, la esencia y la sustancia de lo que significa ser humano. Es una búsqueda sin límites y sin final definitivo, salvo la muerte. Aun así, la vida examinada es esencial para nuestra buena salud y bienestar espiritual.

“For I was a stranger, you welcomed me”. The Diocese of El Paso is helping with humanitarian assistance to refugees arriving on the U.S. border. Immigrants/ Refugees processed by ICE or Border Patrol are released and need assistance in getting to their final U.S. destination where they will appear at an immigration court hearing. The Diocese of El Paso has organized immigrant hospitality centers to offer hot meals, shelter, clothes, prayer, and connections to family members to make travel arrangements. They need volunteers who can travel to El Paso for one week and serve our immigrant brothers and sisters in their time of need. The process is fairly simple in that you can help with welcoming our guests, making meals, helping with intake, making phone calls to family for giving rides to the airport or bus station. Bilingual skills are helpful but not necessary. Once in El Paso lodging and transportation will be provided. Contact vrayas@elpasodiocese.org or call 915-262-4700.
