Could be Worse

If you follow the news carefully, it helps to have a good therapist. It's no surprise that most of us look for good and bad news everyday. It may appear that former times could have seemed better than the way things are today, but there's never a time in history when every event ended happily. We can be fearful or brave, despairing or hopeful, unsure or confident. We run the range of emotions and if we're paying attention to ourselves and to one another, then we are able to realize that this is not the first time in history that humans have had to face troubling times.

Given the fond memories of my first assignment, I'm inclined to remember life with a pastor from Ireland who served in the missions as a priest in Kenya early in his ministry. I learned too that there was a chaplain living in the house who served at the local jails in Santa Clara County. He was a grandfather who became a priest after his wife died. The pastor and the resident priest would sit quietly reading sections from the Mercury News until one would say, "listen to this". The other would stop reading to hear what the other read aloud. This became the normal course, and each read what was the most important subject for that day. (Continued on page 5...)

Podría Ser Peor

Si sigue las noticias, ayuda tener un buen terapeuta. No sorprende que la mayoría de nosotros busquemos buenas y malas noticias todos los días. Puede parecer que los tiempos pasados eran mejores que son los de hoy, pero nunca hubo un momento en la historia en el que todos los eventos terminaron felizmente. Podemos ser temerosos o valientes, desesperados o esperanzados, inseguros o confiados. Manejamos el rango de emociones y si prestamos atención, entonces podemos darnos cuenta de que esta no es la primera vez en la historia que los humanos han tenido que enfrentar tiempos difíciles. En los buenos recuerdos de mi primera asignación, me inclino a recordar la vida con un párroco de Irlanda que sirvió como sacerdote en Kenia. En la casa también vivía un capellán que servía en las cárceles locales del condado de Santa Clara. Era un abuelo que se convirtió en sacerdote después de la muerte de su esposa. El párroco y el sacerdote se sentaban en silencio leyendo secciones del Mercury News hasta que uno decía: "escucha esto". El otro dejaba de leer para escuchar lo que el otro leía en voz alta. Este se convirtió en el curso normal, y cada uno leyó cuál era el tema más importante para ese día. (Continúa en la página 5...)

This ritual captured the imagination of everyone sitting at the table, and just as the reader finished the article, the other would respond, "it could be worse" the reader would reply, "not much". This signaled a return to silence, preceded by an instance of spontaneous laughter. After this, it was the listener's turn to find an article to read aloud and fulfill the ritual.

It was my first experience as a priest at a rectory back in 1991. "It could be worse but not much" became the standard phrase for judging all the printed news at the breakfast table in that household. So much has changed since then. News today is a constant flow of information, not like the simplicity of words printed on newsprint or regulated by editors that have any sense of propriety. With all the images, memes, videos, printed news, and push notifications, we are swimming in a world of information that would have been unimaginable to those at that breakfast table reading the Mercury News so long ago. If what we thought about news and information 30 years ago has any bearing today, then it is far more difficult for any of us to discern what is and isn't true.

Knowing what is and isn't true often requires a teacher, therapist, spiritual director, or just someone you know you can trust. By paying attention to our wisdom and understanding makes it possible to find the truth we seek and the meaning and importance of our search—a search that never ends.

We imagine using clever replies like "it could be worse but not much" and to enjoy laughter derived from such humor from time to time. Still, our desire as disciples of Christ is to find ways to bring people together for dialogue. Monetizing hostility, creating divisions, and normalizing hatred of anyone, we can expect to hear or read about the bad news everyday. It's up to us to make our world a better place by acknowledging our differences, establishing healthy relationship, and creating an environment for dialogue.

(Notas del Párroco, de la pagina 1)

Este ritual capturaba la imaginación de todos los que estaban sentados a la mesa, y justo cuando el lector terminaba el artículo, el otro respondía, "podría ser peor", respondía el lector, "no mucho". Esto marcó un regreso al silencio, precedido por una instancia de risa espontánea. Luego de esto, era el turno del oyente de encontrar un artículo para leer en voz alta y cumplir con el ritual.

Fue mi primera experiencia como sacerdote en una rectoría en 1991. "Podría ser peor, pero no mucho" se convirtió en la frase estándar para juzgar todas las noticias impresas en la mesa del desayuno en ese hogar. Tanto ha cambiado desde entonces. Las noticias de hoy son un flujo constante de información, no como la simplicidad de las palabras impresas en papel de periódico o reguladas por editores. Con todas las imágenes, memes, videos, noticias impresas y notificaciones automáticas, estamos nadando en un mundo de información que habría sido inimaginable para quienes estaban sentados en la mesa leyendo el Mercury News hace tanto tiempo. Si lo que pensábamos sobre las noticias y la información hace 30 años tiene alguna relevancia hoy, entonces es mucho más difícil para cualquiera de nosotros discernir qué es y qué no es verdad. Saber lo que es y lo que no es cierto a menudo requiere un maestro, un terapeuta, un director espiritual o simplemente alguien en quien sepas que puedes confiar. Al prestar atención a nuestra sabiduría y comprensión, es posible encontrar la verdad que buscamos y el significado nuestra búsqueda, una búsqueda que nunca termina.

Nos imaginamos usar respuestas ingeniosas como "podría ser peor pero no mucho" y disfrutar de vez en cuando de las risas de tal humor. Aún así, nuestro deseo como discípulos de Cristo es encontrar formas de unir a las personas para el diálogo. Monetizando la hostilidad, creando divisiones y normalizando el odio hacia cualquiera, podemos esperar escuchar o leer sobre las malas noticias todos los días. Depende de nosotros hacer de nuestro mundo un lugar mejor reconociendo nuestras diferencias, estableciendo relaciones saludables y creando un ambiente para el diálogo.

THE ADVENT WREATH

Today, we lit the second candle in the Advent Wreath. Traditionally, each of the four candles in the Advent Wreath have a deeper meaning:

- ◆ The 1st Sunday of Advent symbolizes Hope with the "Prophet's Candle" reminding us that Jesus is coming.
- ◆ The 2nd Sunday of Advent symbolizes Faith with the "Bethlehem Candle" reminding us of Mary and Joseph's journey to Bethlehem.
- ◆ The 3rd Sunday of Advent symbolizes Joy with the "Shepherd's Candle" reminding us of the Joy the world is experienced at the coming birth of Jesus.
- ◆ The 4th Sunday of Advent symbolizes Peace with the "Angel's Candle" reminding us of the message of the angels: "Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men."

LA CORONA DE ADVIENTO

Hoy, encendimos la segunda vela en la Corona de Adviento. Tradicionalmente, cada una de las cuatro velas en la corona de Adviento tienen un significado más profundo:

- El Primer Domingo de Adviento simboliza la Esperanza con la "Vela del Profeta" recordándonos que Jesús viene.
- El Segundo Domingo de Adviento simboliza la Fe con la "Vela de Belén" que nos recuerda el viaje de María y José a Belén.
- El Tercer Domingo de Adviento simboliza la Alegría con la "Vela del Pastor", recordándonos la alegría que experimenta el mundo en la proximidad del nacimiento de Jesús.
- El Cuarto Domingo de Adviento simboliza la Paz con la "Vela del Ángel" recordándonos el mensaje de los ángeles: "Paz en la Tierra a los Hombres de Buena Voluntad."

We are asking for your donations this year to help our needy neighbors with rent, utilities, food vouchers, toiletries, and bus tokens. With your monetary gifts our organization will purchase pantry items as needed throughout the year.

Our concentration continues to be to help prevent homelessness. This past year we helped 67 households with rent in the total amount of $83,290. This was accomplished through your donations as well as help from other Diocesan parishes and grants from the city of Campbell and the Catholic Foundation. The need is ongoing with families facing eviction.

If you can volunteer with your time and talent, we are always short-handed. You can contact us at svdp.stlucy@gmail.com or 408-915-0054.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR ONGOING HELP!

Estamos pidiendo sus donaciones este año para ayudar a nuestros vecinos con la renta, los servicios públicos, alimentos, y las fichas para el autobús. Con sus donaciones, nuestra organización comprará artículos de despensa según sea necesario durante todo el año.

Nuestra concentración sigue siendo ayudar a prevenir la falta de vivienda. El año pasado ayudamos a 67 hogares con renta por un total de $83,290. Esto se logró gracias a sus donaciones, así como a la ayuda de otras parroquias, la ciudad de Campbell y la Fundación Católica. La necesidad continúa con las familias que enfrentan el desalojo.

Si puede ser voluntario, siempre estamos cortos de personal. Puede contactarnos en svdp.stlucy@gmail.com o 408-915-0054.

¡GRACIAS POR SU AYUDA CONTINUA!

Beyond our Parish

Bishop Oscar Cantú invites every person in our community to complete an anonymous online survey as part of our Diocesan Synod to gain a greater understanding of the pastoral needs of the Catholic community in Santa Clara County, including those no longer practicing their faith. The responses will help inform how our diocese serves God's people in the coming years. The survey is available in English, Spanish or Vietnamese. You can go to dsj.org/synod-survey.
