Happy 5th Sunday of Easter! Many blessings for you and your families as we enter the month of May...the month of Mary and of Joseph, her spouse, as we kick off the month with the memorial of St. Joseph the Worker.

Our St. Lucy Social Justice Committee has continued to work and grow during this year of pandemic isolation. One of the tasks they took on, even before this time of lock downs and shelter-in-place began, was to look at the mental health of our community. The stresses of daily life were often overwhelming for many of our community members and seeking ways to reach out and care for each member of the parish and larger community was important and necessary in our invitation to respond to God's call of discipleship.

The California Catholic Conference reminds us, "Persons with mental illness often suffer in silence, hidden and unrecognized by others." (Continued on page 5...)

¡Feliz quinto domingo de Pascua! Muchas bendiciones para ustedes y sus familias al comenzar el mes de mayo ... el mes de María y de José, su esposo, y empezamos el mes con la fiesta de San José Obrero.

Nuestro Comité de Justicia Social de Santa Lucia ha seguido trabajando y creciendo durante este año de aislamiento pandémico. Una de las tareas que asumieron, incluso antes de que comenzara este tiempo de encierros y refugio en el hogar, fue observar la salud mental de nuestra comunidad. El estrés de la vida diaria fue a menudo abrumador para muchos de los miembros de nuestra comunidad y buscar formas de llegar y cuidar a cada miembro de la parroquia y de la comunidad en general fue importante y necesario en nuestra invitación a responder al llamado de Dios al discipulado.

La Conferencia Católica de California nos recuerda: "Las personas con enfermedades mentales a menudo sufren en silencio, ocultas y no reconocidas por los demás." (Continúa en la página 5...)

Consider this stark contrast: a person with a medical illness, such as cancer, will usually receive an outpouring of sympathy and support from their parish and community; a person diagnosed with a mental illness – such as depression, crippling anxiety, or bipolar disorder – frequently experiences isolation and inadequate support, often because of the unjust social stigma of mental illness. This should not be so in our civic communities and cannot be so in our Catholic communities. Those living with a mental illness should never bear these burdens alone, nor should their families who struggle heroically to assist their loved ones. We Christians must encounter them, accompany them, comfort them and help bear their burdens in solidarity with them – offering our understanding, prayers, and tangible and ongoing assistance.” (from Hope and Healing 2018)

We are all called to care for one another. Please do not be afraid to reach out and seek prayer and guidance. Please don't be afraid to reach out and help those we see struggling.

On another note...this is our spring fundraising week. This Wednesday is our tamales sale...please order your tamales on line. Saturday is our Spring Virtual Auction with pick-up order for tacos and other delicious treats and on Sunday is our Mother's Day Car Raffle...buy your tickets today. All the funds we earn will support our expanded summer ministry for children, reaching out to those young members of our community who are most in need. You can go to the auction home page and support us with a donation or bid on one of the many items.

Thank you for your continued support.

God Bless, Fr. Mark

(Notas del Párroco, de la pagina 1)

Considere este marcado contraste: una persona con una enfermedad médica, como el cáncer, generalmente recibirá una gran cantidad de simpatía y apoyo de su parroquia y comunidad; una persona diagnosticada con una enfermedad mental, como depresión, ansiedad paralizante o trastorno bipolar, experimenta con frecuencia el aislamiento y el apoyo inadecuado, a menudo debido al estigma social injusto de la enfermedad mental. Esto no debería ser en nuestras comunidades cívicas y no puede ser en nuestras comunidades católicas. Aquellos que viven con una enfermedad mental nunca deben soportar estas cargas solos, ni tampoco sus familias, que luchan heroicamente para ayudar a sus seres queridos. Los cristianos debemos encontrarlos, acompañarlos, consolarlos y ayudarlos a llevar sus cargas en solidaridad con ellos, ofreciendo nuestra comprensión, oraciones y asistencia tangible y permanente ”. (de Hope and Healing 2018)

Todos estamos llamados a cuidarnos unos a otros. Por favor, no tenga miedo de acercarse y buscar oración y guía. No tenga miedo de acercarse y ayudar a aquellos que vemos con dificultades.

En otra nota ... esta es nuestra semana de recaudación de fondos de primavera. Este miércoles es nuestra venta de tamales... por favor ordene sus tamales en línea. El sábado es nuestra subasta virtual de primavera con pedido para recoger tacos y otras delicias y el domingo es nuestra rifa de autos del Día de la Madre ... compre sus boletos hoy. Todos los fondos que ganemos apoyarán a nuestro ministerio de verano ampliado para los niños, acercándonos a los miembros jóvenes de nuestra comunidad que más lo necesitan. Puede ir a la página web de la subasta y apoyarnos con una donación o pujar por uno de los muchos artículos.

Gracias por su continuo apoyo.

Que Dios los bendiga, el Padre Mark

Statement on guilty verdict in the trial of Derek Chauvin: "The Church affirms the dignity of all human life as given to us by God from conception until natural death. As two of my brother bishops stated yesterday, "[the] death of George Floyd highlighted and amplified the deep need to see the sacredness in all people, but especially those who have been historically oppressed. Whatever the stage of human life, it not only matters, it is sacred." George Floyd's life mattered. While the dismantling of systemic racism is a long road, it begins with a conversion of heart that acknowledges the humanity of all persons, particularly those who are different from us."
