Mindful Prayer

The Camaldolese Monks on the Big Sur Coast of California are noted for their contemplative and communal prayer forms. The Camaldolese Monastery was founded in the 11th century by St. Romuald whose own spiritual path led him to a life of contemplation and austerity. Still headquartered in the town known as Camaldoli, Italy, sometime in the 20th century the community acquired land in California and expanded their reach to western region of the U.S. Since then, they remain a source of spiritual renewal and welcome for those traveling on the central coastal highway.

If you have visited the monastery near Big Sur and attended Mass or one of other communal prayer times scheduled throughout the day, you will find their rhythm of prayer follows a much slower pace. This can be perplexing for those new to their cadence since the general population is more inclined to a faster call and response tempo. At prayer with the Camaldolese monk, you will find they wait a full 3 seconds before they respond to the presider's greeting "the Lord be with you." (Continued on page 5....)

Oración Consciente

Los monjes camaldulenses en la costa de Big Sur de California se destacan por sus formas de oración contemplativa y comunitaria. El Monasterio Camaldulense fue fundado en el siglo XI por San Romualdo, cuyo propio camino espiritual lo llevó a una vida de contemplación y austeridad. Procedente de la ciudad conocida como Camaldoli en Italia, en algún momento del siglo XX la comunidad adquirió tierra en California y expandió su alcance a la región occidental de los EE. UU. Desde entonces, siguen siendo una fuente de renovación espiritual y bienvenida para quienes viajan por la carretera costera.

Si ha visitado el monasterio cerca de Big Sur y ha asistido a misa o alguna de las otras horas de oración comunitaria programadas a lo largo del día, encontrará que su ritmo de oración sigue un ritmo mucho más lento. Esto puede resultar desconcertante para aquellos que son nuevos en su cadencia, ya que estamos, en general, inclinados a un ritmo de llamada y respuesta más rápida. Al orar con el monje Camaldulense, encontrará que esperan 3 segundos completos antes de responder al saludo del celebrante: "el Señor esté con ustedes". (Continúa en la página 5....)

Come join us for Taizé Prayer Around the Cross

7:00-7:45pm in the Main Church.
Thursday, October 28

The Taizé (pronounced "teh-ZAY") prayer service is from an interfaith community founded in Taizé, France in 1940. We'll sing simple chants throughout the service (such as Jesus, Remember Me) and have a short reading from scripture followed by moments of silent reflection. There's a period for your intercessory prayers after which we'll pray the Our Father. Near the end of service you'll be invited to pray at the cross in whatever form you're comfortable with kneeling, touching, or standing by the cross. Take all the time you need at the cross as you place your joys and concerns to Christ.

Being more conscientious at prayer allows those assembled to be more aware of the present moment and helps them to avoid interior or exterior distractions.

When we assemble in the sacred space of St. Lucy Parish each Sunday, we hope for the same kind of conscientiousness. Our parish is comprised of people who live in the surrounding region of Campbell and the occasional visitor from elsewhere. We are diverse in our approach to the practice of our faith, and still we know that whenever we gather for prayer, we do well to plan ahead. Planning ahead allows us to prepare ourselves to experience the sacred liturgy with respect and reverence. The character of our gathering is meant to draw us closer to God and each other. While we probably won't be following the slower cadence of monks at prayer anytime soon, all of us can learn to be more conscientious about how we can prepare ourselves for Sunday Mass.

The Mass is meant to be meaning for all of us and acting intentionally can improve the way we prepare ourselves. We begin our Sunday Masses at the time they are scheduled. This means if you plan to attend 9am Mass, it would be beneficial to plan to be at St. Lucy by 8:45am to observe time for silent prayer before Mass begins. Additionally, Masses are normally one hour, and everyone is meant to remain until the end of the recessional hymn. Let's keep these things in mind and begin to practice them as we draw nearer to the beginning of new liturgical year on the first Sunday of Advent.

Ser más concienzudos en la oración permite que los reunidos sean más conscientes del momento presente y les ayuda a evitar distracciones interiores o exteriores.

Cuando nos reunimos en el espacio sagrado de la parroquia de Santa Lucia cada domingo, esperamos el mismo tipo de conciencia. Nuestra parroquia está compuesta de personas que viven en la región circundante de Campbell y visitantes ocasionales de otros lugares. Somos diversos en nuestro enfoque de la práctica de nuestra fe, y aún sabemos que siempre que nos reunimos para orar, debemos planear para el futuro. Planear con anticipación nos permite prepararnos para experimentar la sagrada liturgia con respeto y reverencia. El carácter de nuestra reunión está destinado a acercarnos más a Dios y a los demás. Aunque probablemente no estaremos siguiendo la cadencia más lenta de los monjes en oración en el corto plazo, todos podemos aprender a ser más conscientes sobre cómo prepararnos para la misa dominical.

La Misa está destinada a ser significativa para todos nosotros y actuar intencionalmente puede mejorar la forma en que nos preparamos. Comenzamos nuestras misas dominicales a la hora programada. Esto significa que si planea asistir a la misa de la 1 pm, sería beneficioso planear llegar a Santa Lucia a las 12:45 pm para observar el tiempo de oración en silencio antes de que comience la misa. Además, las misas son normalmente de una hora y todos deben permanecer hasta el final del himno de recesión. Tengamos en cuenta estas cosas y comencemos a practicarlas a medida que nos acercamos al comienzo del nuevo año litúrgico el primer domingo de Adviento.

The COVID-19 pandemic has devastated families and communities around the world. As a faith community concerned about the sanctity of human life, the Diocese of San Jose encourages everyone to strongly consider getting vaccinated, after consulting their physicians or health care providers, for the sake of their own health and the common good of our community.

The Diocese of San Jose also urges local government leaders to ensure safe and affordable access to these vaccines, most especially for vulnerable and disadvantaged populations.

Vaccines are free. Health insurance and immigration status will not affect your eligibility. To book a vaccine appointment with your healthcare system or at one of the County's open-to-all locations or get a list of this week's appointment sites, visit www.sccfreevax.org.

For a video from Pope Francis regarding vaccination please visit: <https://www.humandevlopment.va/it/news/2021/francesco-inventa-alla-vaccinazione-contro-il-coronavirus.html>

La pandemia de COVID-19 ha devastado familias y comunidades de todo el mundo. Como comunidad de fe preocupada por la santidad de la vida humana, la Diócesis de San José anima a todos a considerar seriamente vacunarse, después de consultar a sus médicos o proveedores de atención médica, por el bien de su propia salud y el bien común de nuestra comunidad. La Diócesis de San José también insta a los líderes del gobierno local a garantizar un acceso seguro y accesible a estas vacunas, especialmente para las poblaciones vulnerables y desfavorecidas.

Las vacunas son gratis. El seguro médico y el estado migratorio no afectarán su elegibilidad. Para reservar una cita de vacunación en una de las ubicaciones abiertas a todos en el condado u obtener una lista de los lugares de citas de esta semana, visite www.sccfreevax.org.
