Mentoring for New Catholics

Do you want to lead others to Christ? Have you ever considered being a Sponsor? Our "RCIA"- Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults- is always looking for parishioners who can mentor those seeking Full Initiation into the Church. Many of these INQUIRERS are in need of Catholic parishioners who can "Show them the ropes" of our faith and our parish community of St Lucy.

There is a weekly commitment to attend our Wednesday evening sessions, a couple retreats, the Easter Vigil and a few more gatherings with your Candidate or Catechumen. Our RCIA Team will equip you to be a great Sponsor!

If you're interested, please contact Andrew Brown at abrown@dsj.org

Where in the World is St. Lucy (Santa Lucia)?

Legends in several countries, such as Italy, Croatia, and Scandinavian countries, tell us that Santa Lucia wore a crown of candles on her head to light her way while she carried food to the poor in the dark nights. Another form of the legend is that Santa Lucia carried a lamp. This light is symbolic of Santa Lucia shining the light of Christ into the darkness of our world for those in need.
