

A Note from our Pastor Father Mark Arnzen

Next Wednesday is a day of love, Valentine's Day, but there is an even deeper love that will be celebrated, the first day of Lent, Ash Wednesday where the sacrificial love of God's gift of peace and reconciliation becomes a reality in our life. We are also in the middle of "National Marriage Week" where we celebrate the unity of love between husband and wife in the sacramental union of relationship. In other words, love is certainly overflowing these next few days. And if this was not enough, this weekend I will be presenting a Worldwide Marriage Encounter weekend and then Monday evening will be a presentation to our Catechumens on the Sacrament of Marriage.

So, the theme of this reflection is on reconciliation and confession. You may at this point be shaking your head and asking, "Why not love?" This is a legitimate and good question...

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Gospel MK 1:40-45

A leper came to Jesus and kneeling down begged him and said,

"If you wish, you can make me clean."

Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand,

touched him, and said to him,
"I do will it. Be made clean."
The leprosy left him immediately, and he was made clean.
Then, warning him sternly, he dismissed him at once.

He said to him, "See that you tell no one anything,
but go, show yourself to the priest
and offer for your cleansing what Moses prescribed;
that will be proof for them."
