RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

As I Love You

This week my children were learning about energy. We set up an experiment with toy cars — one was placed in front of another, and a third was pushed into the two stationary ones.

The forward motion caused the front car to move, but not much. “Most of the energy goes into the car in the middle, not the car on the end,” my daughter concluded.

I asked her why she seems to have so much energy, and I seem to have so little.

“Because you’re old,” she replied confidently.

Most days I feel like that first car, barreling at life with all my energy and love and good intentions, only to have it almost entirely absorbed by the proverbial middle car. It’s so easy to be discouraged. The devil so badly wants us to feel discouraged. (Continued on page 4...)

RECONOCE A DIOS EN TUS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS

Por Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Como Yo te Amo

Esta semana mis hijos estuvieron aprendiendo sobre la energía. Hicimos un experimento con coches de juguete: colocamos uno delante del otro y empujamos el tercero contra los dos que estaban parados.

El movimiento hacia adelante hizo que el auto delantero se moviera, pero no mucho. “La mayor parte de la energía va al auto del medio, no al auto del final,” concluyó mi hija.

Le pregunté por qué ella parece tener tanta energía y yo parezco tener tan poca.

“Porque eres vieja,” respondió ella con confianza.

La mayoría de los días me siento como ese primer auto, atacando la vida con toda mi energía, amor y buenas intenciones, solo para que el proverbial auto del medio la absorba casi por completo. Es muy fácil desanimarse. El diablo desea con todas sus fuerzas que nos sintamos desanimados. (Continúa en la página 4...)

But the law of love is not unlike the law of conservation of energy. Love is neither created nor destroyed. It is only transferred from one form to another. And yes, sometimes it certainly seems like it disappears. It appears to get lost between my hands and the plate of dinner that goes uneaten or evaporates off of my lips as words I fear are never heard. It is spat upon as a commandment the world would prefer I do not keep.

But we are not called to simply love one another — to love when it seems effective and productive and appreciated. We are called to love as Christ loved: recklessly, selflessly, and yes, even without logic. We are called to love with a love that doesn't give up and is never withdrawn. A love that doesn't fear death or the world's hatred. A love that stands willing to argue, to be reviled, to be dismissed.

We are called to be that first car, hurtling ourselves against a world that isn't ready to accept or understand us. And we trust that, even when we can't see how, the love that seems to disappear simply changes forms.

©LPi

"This is my commandment: love one another as I love you." — John 15:12

(Continuación de la pagina 1)

Pero la ley del amor no es diferente de la ley de conservación de la energía. El amor no se crea ni se destruye. Sólo se transfiere de una forma a otra. Y sí, a veces ciertamente parece que desaparece. Parece perderse entre mis manos y el plato de la cena que no se come o se evapora de mis labios cuando temo que mis palabras nunca se escuchan. Se escupe como un mandamiento que el mundo preferiría que no guardara.

Pero no estamos llamados simplemente a amarnos unos a otros, a amar cuando parezca eficaz, productivo y apreciado. Estamos llamados a amar como Cristo amó: imprudentemente, desinteresadamente y sí, incluso sin lógica. Estamos llamados a amar con un amor que no se rinde y nunca se retira. Un amor que no teme a la muerte ni al odio del mundo. Un amor que está dispuesto a discutir, a ser criticado, a ser desestimado.

Estamos llamados a ser ese primer auto, lanzándonos contra un mundo que no está listo para aceptarnos o comprendernos. Y confiamos en que, aunque no veamos cómo, el amor que parece desaparecer simplemente cambia de forma©LPi
