The Great Joy of Giving

Summer break is quickly coming to an end, and we are well on our way to a new school year. Opening ourselves to learning requires self-discipline and a willingness to grow—physically, mentally, emotionally, and spiritually. The fact that we can advance our well-being reminds us of our capacity for continued growth and adaptation. As everything around us constantly changes, we are grateful for the ability to remain mindful of our identity as beloved children of God, called to bring out the best in one another. Living fully in the present moment helps us discover the path ahead.

This time of year, many are reflecting on how best to use their time and talents. Time, energy, and resources are limited, and much of what we give will naturally go to those closest to us. As Roman Catholics, however, we are invited to view our lives through the lens of Jesus' Paschal Mystery. His death and resurrection reveal God's power over sin and death. Through baptism, we become members of Christ's Body and share in His life. Jesus freely gave His life so that we might have life more abundantly. This incredible gift inspires us to use our own gifts wisely—for the good of the community here at St. Lucy.

People often ask me how things are going. I usually respond, "Everything is going as planned," and I truly believe we have every reason to be hopeful about our future. Still, our success depends on your willingness to participate—to be generous with your time and talent. What we do at St. Lucy simply cannot happen without people who are willing to respond to God's call to serve. This is a key lesson in living a joyful and meaningful life.

As St. Paul reminds us in 2 Corinthians, "God loves a cheerful giver." This beautiful passage reminds us that generosity brings out the best in ourselves and in each other. I encourage you to reflect on how you might put your generosity to work by volunteering at St. Lucy—as a Eucharistic Minister, Lector, Catechist, Usher, Musician, or Greeter. We need new liturgical ministers at every Mass.

We will hold a liturgical training for all current Ushers and Eucharistic Ministers, as well as those who wish to be commissioned in these ministries, on August 23 from 9:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon in the PAC. Please join us for a morning of training and fellowship.

La Gran Alegría de Dar

Las vacaciones de verano se acercan rápidamente al final y estamos en camino a un nuevo año escolar. Abrirnos al aprendizaje requiere autodisciplina y la voluntad de crecer física, mental, emocional y espiritualmente. El hecho de que podamos mejorar nuestro bienestar nos recuerda nuestra capacidad de crecimiento y adaptación continuos. Mientras todo a nuestro alrededor cambia constantemente, agradecemos la capacidad de ser conscientes de nuestra identidad como hijos amados de Dios, llamados a sacar lo mejor de cada uno. Vivir plenamente el presente nos ayuda a descubrir el camino a seguir.

En esta época del año, muchos reflexionan sobre cómo aprovechar al máximo su tiempo y talentos. El tiempo, la energía y los recursos son limitados, y gran parte de lo que damos se destinará naturalmente a quienes nos rodean. Sin embargo, como católicos romanos, se nos invita a ver nuestras vidas a través del misterio pascual de Jesús. Su muerte y resurrección revelan el poder de Dios sobre el pecado y la muerte. A través del bautismo, nos convertimos en miembros del Cuerpo de Cristo y compartimos su vida. Jesús entregó su vida libremente para que tuviéramos vida en abundancia. Este increíble don nos inspira a usar nuestros dones sabiamente, para el bien de la comunidad aquí en Santa Lucía.

A menudo me preguntan cómo van las cosas. Suelo responder: "Todo va según lo previsto", y creo firmemente que tenemos motivos de sobra para tener esperanza en nuestro futuro. Aun así, nuestro éxito depende de su disposición a participar, de ser generosos con su tiempo y talento. Lo que hacemos en Santa Lucía simplemente no puede suceder sin personas dispuestas a responder al llamado de Dios a servir. Esta es una lección clave para vivir una vida alegre y plena.

Como nos recuerda San Pablo en 2 Corintios: "Dios ama al dador alegre". Este hermoso pasaje nos recuerda que la generosidad saca lo mejor de nosotros mismos y de los demás. Los animo a reflexionar sobre cómo podrían poner en práctica su generosidad como voluntarios en Santa Lucía: como ministros de la Eucaristía, lectores, catequistas, acomodadores, músicos o recepcionistas. Necesitamos nuevos ministros litúrgicos para cada misa.

El 23 de agosto, de 9:30 a. m. a 12:00 p. m., en el PAC, ofreceremos una capacitación litúrgica para todos los ujieres y ministros eucarísticos actuales en todas las Misas de Inglés, así como para quienes deseen ser comisionados en estos ministerios. Los invitamos a disfrutar de una mañana de capacitación y convivencia.
