Art in the Catholic Tradition

For centuries, mosaics, statues, and paintings have played a vital role in the Church's mission of evangelization. Long before reading and writing became common, sculpted images and the oral tradition were the primary means of preserving and sharing Scripture and tradition. Even today, artists continue to create imaginative portrayals of biblical figures and saints, each reflecting a particular moment in salvation history. Some works have become so iconic that their significance now seems to transcend the artist's original intent.

Consider Michelangelo's David, Moses, or Pietà—masterpieces recognized even by those with only a passing knowledge of Western art. Their beauty and craftsmanship have set a standard for all who attempt to depict these figures. Just as Renaissance composers produced enduring works of sacred music, artists of that era gave the Church timeless and majestic images of Scripture's great figures and the heroes of our tradition.

Though Michelangelo's time has long passed and most modern church architecture departs from those historic styles, the storytelling power of sacred art remains. When the current church building was completed in 1967 at St. Lucy, its designers sought to incorporate art that would speak to the faithful and capture the Christian imagination.

Today, our parish is blessed with two statues of St. Lucy—one inside the church and one outside. Beyond their physical beauty, these works invite us to reflect on why an artist would memorialize a young woman from the fourth century martyred for her faith. Such images honor the faithful who endured hardship, even death, for the sake of Christ. Similarly, the striking mosaic of the Risen Christ behind the altar draws our attention each Sunday to the Paschal Mystery we celebrate together—Christ's triumph over sin and death, the heart of our faith.

Our Catholic heritage is rich with stories of faith, courage, and joy. We owe a deep gratitude to our ancestors who paved the way for us to share the gospel message and the promises of Jesus Christ. Sacred art revives and breathes new life into our worship space, drawing hearts and minds toward the mysteries we celebrate.

As I mentioned in a previous article, we plan to repurpose the former confessionals by transforming them into side altars. Just as we now have two side altars—one honoring the Holy Family and the other the Sacred Heart—we will create two new ones: one dedicated to Our Lady of Guadalupe, and the other featuring our interior statue of St. Lucy. Presently diocesan approval is pending based on our application. Nevertheless, we hope to begin work soon.

I am deeply thankful to all whose generosity and effort will help bring this vision to life.

El Arte en la Tradición Católica

Durante siglos, los mosaicos, las estatuas y las pinturas han desempeñado un papel vital en la misión evangelizadora de la Iglesia. Mucho antes de que la lectura y la escritura se popularizaran, las imágenes esculpidas y la tradición oral eran el principal medio para preservar y compartir la Escritura y la tradición. Incluso hoy, los artistas continúan creando representaciones imaginativas de figuras bíblicas y santos, cada una reflejando un momento particular de la historia de la salvación. Algunas obras se han vuelto tan icónicas que su significado parece trascender la intención original del artista.

Considere el David, el Moisés o la Piedad de Miguel Ángel: obras maestras reconocidas incluso por quienes tienen un conocimiento superficial del arte occidental. Su belleza y artesanía han marcado un estándar para quienes intentan representar estas figuras. Así como los compositores renacentistas produjeron obras imperecederas de música sacra, los artistas de esa época dieron a la Iglesia imágenes atemporales y majestuosas de las grandes figuras de la Escritura y los héroes de nuestra tradición.

Aunque la época de Miguel Ángel ya pasó y la mayor parte de la arquitectura eclesial moderna se aleja de esos estilos históricos, el poder narrativo del arte sacro permanece. Cuando se terminó la actual iglesia de Santa Lucía en 1967, sus diseñadores buscaron incorporar arte que conectara con los fieles y despertara la imaginación cristiana.

Hoy, nuestra parroquia cuenta con dos estatuas de Santa Lucía: una dentro de la iglesia y otra fuera. Más allá de su belleza física, estas obras nos invitan a reflexionar sobre por qué un artista conmemoraría a una joven del siglo IV martirizada por su fe. Estas imágenes honran a los fieles que soportaron dificultades, incluso la muerte, por amor a Cristo. De igual manera, el impactante mosaico de Cristo Resucitado detrás del altar dirige nuestra atención cada domingo al Misterio Pascual que celebramos juntos: el triunfo de Cristo sobre el pecado y la muerte, el corazón de nuestra fe.

Nuestra herencia católica está llena de historias de fe, valentía y alegría. Les debemos una profunda gratitud a nuestros antepasados, quienes nos abrieron el camino para compartir el mensaje del Evangelio y las promesas de Jesucristo. El arte sacro revitaliza nuestro espacio de culto, atrayendo corazones y mentes hacia los misterios que celebramos.

Como mencioné en un artículo anterior, planeamos reutilizar los antiguos confesionarios transformándolos en altares laterales. Así como ahora tenemos dos altares laterales—uno en honor a la Sagrada Familia y otro al Sagrado Corazón—, crearemos dos nuevos: uno dedicado a Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe y el otro con nuestra estatua interior de Santa Lucía. Actualmente, la aprobación diocesana está pendiente de nuestra solicitud. Sin embargo, esperamos comenzar las obras pronto.

Agradezco profundamente a todos cuya generosidad y esfuerzo ayudarán a hacer realidad esta visión.

ST LUCY PARISH MINISTRY SPOTLIGHT

St. Lucy Parish Ministry to the Sick and Homebound

Established in 1974 members of the Ministry to the Sick and Homebound take the Eucharist to and visit the people in the parish and those in rest homes who are ill and unable to come to church. It is an extension of our mission as a parish community to reflect the compassion and healing power of Jesus.

We welcome people who demonstrate compassion, care, and concern for the sick and elderly. This ministry is very close to that of Jesus – spiritual healing often occurs. Workshops are provided both by the Diocese and parish to help ministers to prepare for this ministry.

We spend time with those in our parish who are in need of our company. St. Lucy's community has 11 rest homes, 2 hospitals & several individuals who are homebound. The time commitment varies according to the availability of the minister and people's needs.

Retrouvaille is not a spiritual retreat, not a sensitivity group, not a seminar, not a social gathering.
