Advent Season

Christmas Day draws near, yet we still have time to prepare the way of the Lord. Immersing ourselves in the scriptures of this holy season—listening attentively, reading them aloud, and pausing in silent reflection—opens space in our hearts for Christ to be born anew within each of us. Many of you already know this well, for you share the gift of communion here at St. Lucy. Surrounded by family and friends, we will soon gather to share the joy and cheer that mark this blessed time.

The generosity of this parish is especially evident during Advent. How we wish we could fully understand what inspires such magnanimity in others. Yet those who are attuned to the quiet movements of the heart—those gifted with intuition and emotional insight—recognize how radical gratitude can lead to radical generosity and radical change of heart. There are few joys greater than seeing another's eyes light up at a gift freely given. That moment is priceless. Would that everyone could experience such an exchange of goodwill. Even when giver and recipient never meet, a spiritual connection forms between them. In that unseen encounter, we are reminded of the gift of life itself. By sharing what we value with one another, we discover our true worth and draw closer together. This is how trust grows, how friendships begin, and communities form.

Most of us carry with us memories of Christmas past—a time of innocence when the wonder of Santa Claus seemed entirely possible. As mature Christians, our gaze now turns toward the Christ Child born in Bethlehem. Still, many adults delight in reliving that sense of innocence through the eyes of their children, who will one day grow into adulthood and pass on this legacy of love. The surprises of the season eventually reveal themselves as gifts—just as our children are God's gifts to this generation.

We long for a Savior in our own time, and we await the return of Jesus. To be his disciples is to share God's word in ways that inspire others to rejoice. Unexpected blessings stir joy within us and awaken a spirit of gratitude. Thoughtful acts of kindness give rise to genuine goodwill, beauty, and interior peace.

The generosity of the St. Lucy community continues to be truly exceptional. Through your kindness, many children and adults in our area are being cared for in meaningful ways. This Advent, let us renew our commitment to prepare for the One who comes in the name of the Lord. As we draw nearer to celebrating the gift of life God offers us in Jesus, may we recognize with grateful hearts the promises God fulfills even now.

Temporada de Adviento

Se acerca el día de Navidad, pero aún tenemos tiempo para preparar el camino del Señor. Sumergirnos en las Escrituras de esta santa temporada —escuchando atentamente, leyéndolas en voz alta y haciendo pausas para la reflexión silenciosa— abre un espacio en nuestros corazones para que Cristo nazca de nuevo en cada uno de nosotros. Muchos de ustedes ya lo saben bien, pues comparten el don de la comunión aquí en Santa Lucía. Rodeados de familiares y amigos, pronto nos reuniremos para compartir la alegría y el júbilo que caracterizan este tiempo bendito.

La generosidad de esta parroquia es especialmente evidente durante el Adviento. ¡Cuánto deseamos comprender plenamente qué inspira tanta magnanimidad en los demás! Sin embargo, quienes están atentos a los movimientos silenciosos del corazón —quienes poseen el don de la intuición y la perspicacia emocional— reconocen cómo la gratitud profunda puede conducir a la generosidad radical y a un cambio radical de corazón.

Hay pocas alegrías mayores que ver los ojos de otra persona iluminarse ante un regalo dado con generosidad. Ese momento no tiene precio. Ojalá todos pudieran experimentar ese intercambio de buena voluntad. Incluso cuando el que da y el que recibe nunca se conocen, se forma una conexión espiritual entre ellos. En ese encuentro invisible, recordamos el don de la vida misma. Al compartir lo que valoramos unos con otros, descubrimos nuestro verdadero valor y nos acercamos más. Así crece la confianza, así comienzan las amistades y se forman las comunidades.

La mayoría de nosotros conservamos recuerdos de Navidades pasadas, un tiempo de inocencia en el que la magia de Papá Noel parecía completamente posible. Como cristianos maduros, nuestra mirada se dirige ahora al Niño Jesús nacido en Belén. Aun así, muchos adultos se deleitan reviviendo ese sentido de inocencia a través de los ojos de sus hijos, quienes algún día crecerán y transmitirán este legado de amor. Las sorpresas de la temporada finalmente se revelan como regalos, al igual que nuestros hijos son regalos de Dios para esta generación.

Anhelamos un Salvador en nuestro tiempo y esperamos el regreso de Jesús. Ser sus discípulos es compartir la palabra de Dios de maneras que inspiren a otros a regocijarse. Las bendiciones inesperadas despiertan alegría en nosotros y un espíritu de gratitud. Los actos de bondad reflexivos dan lugar a la buena voluntad genuina, la belleza y la paz interior.

La generosidad de la comunidad de Santa Lucía sigue siendo verdaderamente excepcional. Gracias a su bondad, muchos niños y adultos de nuestra zona reciben atención de maneras significativas. En este Adviento, renovemos nuestro compromiso de prepararnos para Aquel que viene en el nombre del Señor. Al acercarnos a la celebración del don de la vida que Dios nos ofrece en Jesús, reconozcamos con corazones agradecidos las promesas que Dios cumple incluso ahora.

Message from the Principal

During the season of Advent, our students joyfully prepared their hearts for the celebration of Christmas. Classrooms were filled with the sounds of carols, laughter, and the thoughtful conversations that come from learning about the true meaning of the season: hope, peace, joy, and love.

Students were busy creating Advent wreaths, practicing for the Christmas Program, and participating in prayer reflections. Students also engaged in service, gathering gifts and essentials for families in need, reminding us all that Christmas is a time for generosity and compassion.

Throughout the month, our halls became a little brighter each day with nativity artwork and heartfelt messages about the birth of Jesus.

May the preparations of our children inspire all of us to slow down, reflect, and welcome the light of Christ into our homes and hearts this Christmas season.

Blessings,

Sue Grover
